THOUSANDS LOST FAST

Fire Damage Three-fourths Million.

Flames in Books and Stationery Baffle San Francisco's Firemen.

Men Caught in Rooms Reach Safety After Much Peril in Thus Doing.

Agencies of Four Publishing Houses Sufferers—Water Adds to the Ruin.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, March 9.—Fire tonight in a five-story stone building at No. 321 Sansome street, between California and Sacramento streets, caused a loss of over $750,000.

The fire started on the third floor of the storeroom of Cunningham, Curtis & Welch, wholesale stationers and book dealers, at a point near the elevator shaft, and before the firemen arrived the fire had spread to the floor above.

In an astonishingly short period of time the fifth floor was next ablaze and the firemen had great trouble, owing to the inflammable character of the contents. When they would succeed in controlling the fire on one floor it would break out on another.

There were no serious accidents, and, so far as known, every occupant escaped from the building. Three men, who were caught in their rooms, got to safety after much difficulty and peril.

The building was practically gutted. What was left untouched by the flames was ruined by the great volume of water poured in upon the building. Cunningham, Curtis & Welsh estimate their loss at $400,000, with insurance of $200,000. The Louis Roesch Company a lithographing concern, lost $200,000, with insurance of $37,500. The Union Lithograph Company lost $100,000. The damages to the building which is owned by Sigmund Stern, is estimated at $100,000. It is possible that the walls may be used again for rebuilding. The San Francisco agencies of Ginn & Co., D. C. Health & Co., Silver Burdette & Co., and the Macmillan Company were located in the building and were sufferers to some extent.

HUNTING NEGRO WITH HOUNDS.

EXCITING CHASE TO THE BANKS OF THE GUNPOWDER.

Murderer Isaac Winder Escapes from Towson Jail and is Besieged in a Mill—Driven Thence He Pours a Volley Into Officers and Escapes to River.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BALTIMORE (Md.) March 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Isaac Winder, a negro murderer, who escaped from the Towson Jail, has been run into the Gunpowder River, on the banks of which a mob and a Sheriff's posse with bloodhounds are halted by the uncertainty whether Winder has been drowned or has escaped.

The chase involved a siege in an old mill, a pistol duel with officers, and many other exciting episodes.

This afternoon, Deputy Sheriff Shanklin was informed that Winder had been seen near Cockeysville, and on the outskirts of that town the officer and his posse saw the negro flee into an abandoned mill. Believing that their quarry could not escape, three of the deputies were stationed around the mill, and Shanklin went to the village, where he telephoned to Baltimore for help.

Fifty policemen were at once sent out on a special train, and Shanklin returned to help his men hold the murderer at bay. Winder, who has displayed great cunning, ran at top speed out of the tumbledown back door of the mill, and as the posse raced after him around the old ruin, turned and deliberately poured into them a volley that made them take to cover.

While the officers were dodging behind trees, Winder again took to his heels, and was soon hidden in the dense woods and underbrush. Fearing an ambush, the officers proceeded warily.

CHICAGO "BEARS" LOOSE.

CHICAGO, March 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "Bears" ruled with a high hand in the wheat pit of the Board of Trade today, sending wheat to a low point which is said to be the record for more than two years. May wheat at one time touched 76 1-4, and July wheat dropped from 77¼ to 76 3-4. The losses ran to 1 cent a bushel in many instances, and for twenty minutes the wildest scenes prevailed. On lively trade prices recovered a little late in the session.

WILL FIGHT THE CUBANS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PITTSBURGH (Pa.) March 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] T. J. Keenan of Pittsburgh, president of the Pinos Steamship Company, whose vessels ply between American and Cuban ports, is going to fight the Cuban government. Keenan, who returned from Cuba today, declares the Cuban officials scornfully ignore the Platt amendment to their Constitution. One act of the American military government of the island provided that American ships in Cuban ports should have the usual rights with ships flying the Cuban flag. Keenan nevertheless was told by the Assistant Secretary of the Cuban Treasury Department that his ships would not be allowed to trade between Cuban ports without taking out a Cuban register.

When attention was drawn to the Platt amendment, the Secretary dismissed it by saying permission to trade between Cuban ports was a war measure, which could not be recognized in time of peace. Keenan therefore will fight for his rights, and has served notice on the State Department. He expects support.

SLUGGING OF "ST. ANTHONY."

NEW YORKER BANGS COMSTOCK HARD IN COURT.

Well Known Vice Abolisher Calls Hugh Gordon Miller a Liar and Gets Three Heavy Blows on Both Eyes and His Jaw in Retaliation for the Insult.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, March 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Anthony Comstock, well known everywhere because of his connection with the Society for the Suppression of Crime, was given three heavy blows in the face, when testifying before United States Commissioner Shields this afternoon.

Hugh Gordon Miller, of the firm of Marx & Miller, was the man who struck the blows. Miller had made a statement to which Comstock replied: "You are a liar." Bang went Miller's right fist against Comstock's left eye.

The room was in an uproar at once. Two deputy marshals sprang between the men, but Miller got away from them and swung a left-hand blow to Anthony's right eye, following it with another on the jaw.

SARRIEN MAY BE PREMIER.

If Other French Statesmen Will Cooperate, He Will Head New Cabinet for Fallieres.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PARIS, March 9.—President Fallieres received Jean Sarrien, former Minister of Justice, this afternoon and offered him the task of forming a Cabinet.

M. Sarrien's conferences with M. Bourgeois, M. Poincare and other statesmen continued until late this evening. Although giving hope of eventual success, they did not furnish sufficient promise of concrete coöperation to enable him to announce to the President, whom he saw at 11 o'clock tonight, his ability to constitute a Cabinet. The principal obstacle encountered is the difficulty of obtaining the consent of M. Poincare to accept a portfolio. In the event of success tomorrow, M. Sarrien will signify to President Fallieres his acceptance of the Premiership. He already is assured of M. Bourgeois's support; with M. Poincare's assent obtained, the allotment of the remainder of the portfolios will be an easy task.

M. Rouvier, the retiring Premier, who continues to carry on current business, received the German Ambassador, Prince Von Radolin, during the day, presumably in connection with the German desire to secure sufficient guarantees regarding the Franco-Spanish control of the Moroccan police to permit of a final adjustment at Algeciras.

HIS RIDES ON BUMPERS.

Denver Ex-Hobo Will Pay Full Rates to the Big Four for Stolen Transportation.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

INDIANAPOLIS, March 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Being converted now, as he says, an ex-hobo in Denver writes to C. C. Clark, general agent of the passenger department of the Big Four Railroad, that he wishes to pay for the rides he stole on the bumpers of freight cars. He asks Clark to advise him concerning the best rates that can be given him.

Clark says he will have to ask the writer to pay regular passenger rates. He is now making out an itemized statement to be sent to the repentant one.

NEW YORK, March 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] For the second time, the stork is hovering over the town house of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., Dr. Colly, the Rockefeller physician, was in attendance all day today. The first child was a girl, born November 9, 1903. She was named Abby, after her mother, who, before her marriage, was Miss Abby Aldrich, daughter of Senator Aldrich of Rhode Island.

FIGHTING THE MOROS ON A CRATER TOP.

Americans Kill Six Hundred Natives in a Two Days' Battle.

Col. Duncan Attacks Fortified Position on Mount Dajo—Artillery Lifted by Block and Tackle Up Almost Perpendicular Incline — Fifteen Soldiers and Three of Constabulary Slain—Fifty-two Wounded.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, March 9.—The official account of the fight near Jolo is contained in the following cablegram received at the War Department:

Military Secretary, Washington:

"Following condensed from Maj.-Gen. Wood's dispatch from Camboango, March 9:

"Troops, naval detachment, constabulary, Col. Joseph W. Duncan commanding, attacked Moro fortifications in crater on Mount Dajo, near Jolo. Action lasted afternoon March 6 until morning March 8. Mount Dajo 2100 feet high, last 400 feet angle 50 degrees; lava ridges, heavy timber. Artillery lifted by block and tackle 300 feet.

"Moros depredated from stronghold for past eight months and resisted to the death. About six hundred killed. Maj.-Gen. Wood and Brig.-Gen. Tasker H. Bliss were present throughout action.

"Killed: Army, 15 enlisted.

"Capt. Tyree Rivers, wounded in thigh, slight.

"First Lieut. Gordon Johnson wounded in shoulder, serious.

"First Lieut. Ernest Agnew wounded in head, slight.

"First Lieut. W. T. Conway, eye, slight.

"Thirty-two enlisted men. Names enlisted men killed and wounded will be reported later.

"Navy: Wounded:

"Ensign H. S. Cook, wounded in foot, serious.

"Coxswain Gilmore, elbow, slight; one seaman, slight.

"Constabulary: Killed, three enlisted.

"John R. White wounded in thigh, serious.

"Total killed, 18; wounded, 52.

"Troops, naval detachment and constabulary all highly recommended.

(Signed) "ANDREWS, in absence of division commander."

MANILA, March 9.—Maj.-Gen. Wood reports from Jolo as follows:

"A severe action has taken place between troops, a contingent of the naval department, the constabulary and a body of hostile Moros at Mount Dajo, near Jolo, opening on the afternoon of March 6 and ending on the morning of March 8.

"The action involved the capture of Mount Dajo, a lava-capped cone 2000 feet high from the crater on the summit, extremely steep, the last 300 feet being at an angle of 60 degrees. Traversing its slopes are fifty perpendicular ridges, covered with a growth of timber, strongly fortified and held by an invisible army.

THE CASUALTIES.

"The army casualties were fifteen enlisted men killed, four commissioned officers wounded, and thirty-two enlisted men wounded.

"The naval casualties were: Ensign H. D. Cooke, commanding the Pampanga, wounded in the foot, severe; Coxswain Gilmore, wounded in elbow, severe.

"The constabulary casualties were: Capt. John R. White, wounded in the thigh, severe; three enlisted men were killed, and thirteen wounded.

OUTLAW BAND DESTROYED.

"The action resulted in the destruction of a band of outlaws, recognizing no chief, that had been raiding friendly Moros on the target range at Jolo, and through defiance had stirred up a dangerous condition of affairs.

SIX HUNDRED BODIES.

"Col. Joseph W. Duncan of the Sixth Infantry directed the operations. All of the defenders of the Moro stronghold were killed and 600 bodies were found in the works. The artillery was lifted by block and tackle a distance of 300 feet into position on the lip of the crater.

"Brig.-Gen. Bliss and myself were present throughout the action. The attacking columns were commanded by Maj. Omar Bundy, Capt. E. P. Lawton, Capt. Rivers, Capt. L. M. Koehler, Capt. McGlachlin and Lieut. Johnson.

"The officers and men engaged highly commend the Moro constabulary, who did excellent work, their casualties numbering seventeen out of the force of forty-four engaged.

"It is impossible to conceive a stronger natural position than that which was attacked."

FOUGHT TWO DAYS.

The attack was under the immediate command of Col. Duncan of the Sixth Infantry. The fighting lasted two days among the lava ridges, which had been strongly fortified by the Moros. Gen. Wood highly commends the work of the troops.

CABLE SERVICE BROKEN.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

MANILA, March 10.—The cable between Jolo and Mindanao is broken, and there is only a launch service between the two islands. As a result of the interruption of the cable service, further details of the recent battle on Mount Dajo are not available, but the military authorities are endeavoring to speedily obtain them.

Apparently there will be no more fighting on the island of Jolo. On the island of Mindanao, Federal troops and constabulary are pursuing hostile Moros, and probably some unimportant engagements will follow.

Advices at hand show that the attack on Mount Dajo was a most notable one. Maj.-Gen. Wood directed Col. Duncan to attack the Moros in the crater and capture or kill them. This was accomplished after repeated demands to surrender. It is believed that no prisoners were taken.

MOST HAZARDOUS CONDITIONS.

The attack was made under the most hazardous circumstances. Starting early in the afternoon of March 6, the assailants climbed for a distance of 2100 feet up a lava cone, the last fifty feet almost perpendicular. At the top were 600 fanatical Moros, armed with rifles and knives and supported by native artillery. The fortified crater was almost invisible and seemingly inaccessible. At the word of command the troops rushed into the crater and many hand-to-hand encounters followed.

A complete list of casualties has not yet been made up, but the company commanders are working on it.

THE WOUNDED OFFICERS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, March 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Ensign Henry David Cooke, Jr., wounded in the engagement with the Moros, is the son of Henry David Cooke, a promoter with offices at No. 52 Broadway and living at No. 345 West Eighty-fifth street, this city. Ensign Cooke was borne in Washington, D. C., twenty-six years ago. He entered the Naval Academy, and graduated with the class of 1903. He was president of his class. Ensign Cooke served on the battleship Wisconsin until April, 1905, when he was sent to Manila, and was assigned to the Pampanga. Ensign Cooke's great uncle was the late Jay Cooke. His grandfather, H. D. Cooke, was the first governor of the District of Columbia.

FIRST LIEUT. JOHNSTON.

First Lieut. Gordon Johnston was born in Charlotte, N. C., in 1874. His family is one of the most prominent in the South. His father is Gen. Robert D. Johnston, who distinguished himself in the Civil War, and was recently appointed commander of the Federal Land Office in Montgomery, Ala. Young Johnston was a member of the class of 1906 at Princeton, where he was active in athletics, playing on the football team. Joining the Rough Riders at the beginning of the Spanish War, Johnston won the high commendation of Col. Roosevelt. Lieut. Johnston was married about a year ago, to Miss Julia Johnston of Baltimore, Md.

CAPT. RIVERS.

Capt. Tyree R. Rivers, who was slightly wounded in the thigh, was born May 10, 1863, in Mississippi. He was appointed a cadet in the Military Academy from Tenessee, July 1, 1879; became second lieutenant, Third Cavalry June 13, 1883, first lieutenant Third Cavalry, January 17, 1889, and captain of Fourth Cavalry March 2, 1899.

LIEUT. AGNEW.

First Lieut. Ernest H. Agnew was, in 1898, a second lieutenant of the Twentieth Kansas Volunteer Infantry, and succeeded to the rank of captain of the Eleventh United States Volunteer Cavalry in 1899. He was appointed second lieutenant in the regular army February 2, 1901, reaching the grade of first lieutenapt in the same month.

LIEUT. CONWAY.

First Lieut. Wylie T. Conway, a native of Illinois, entered the army as a private, May 27, 1898, and February 2, 1901, was commissioned a second lieutenant.

GOV. LANGHORN'S REPORT.

FIGHT VIRTUALLY PREDICTED.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, March 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Coincident with the cablegram announcing a battle near Jolo, in Zamboanga, the War Department today received the second annual report of Capt. George T. Langhorn, Eleventh Cavalry, Governor of Moro, and his statements show that such a fight as that of yesterday was not unexpected. In his report, he gives incident after incident wherein a datto has sworn allegiance, only to turn around and commit some depredation on life or property. He says that they have repeatedly fired upon parties of surveyors, upon scouting parties of constabulary, and even upon regular troops without provocation.

Their hatred for Americans seems to be without end and without reason. One Inemi who "ran amuck," as the report puts it, and was cut down by the soldiers, was taken to the hospital to have his wounds dressed. As he lay on the operating table and his bonds were loosened, he summoned all of his remaining strength, to throw his heavy silver betel box at the surgeon, and fell back dead.

Others continued their fight against the American force because their soothsayers had promised them forty years extra lease of life for it.

The suggestion is made at the War Department that perhaps one reason why the Moros are active is that they are beginning to feel the rein drawn a little more tightly than before. The United States forces hitherto have been lenient with them in the matter of slavery, but recently have pronounced against it. The report today said that it is practically suppressed, and it is supposed here that this process of suppression after continued complaisance has incited them to rebellion.

AT WAR DEPARTMENT.

DATA ON WOOD'S MOVEMENTS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, March 9.—Not because of the casualties among the forces engaged, though they were more numerous than in any battle in the Philippines for several years past, but rather because of the extraordinarily large number of the natives killed, the news of the battle of Mount Dajo was received by the War Department (and the Navy Department, as well, for the bluejackets were in the thick of the fighting) with intense interest. The first authentic news of the battle came through the Associated Press reports, though at the same time the cipher experts of the War Department were busily engaged in trying to unravel a long report which had come direct from Manila by cable. This message was from Col. Andrews, the military secretary at army headquarters at Manila, who had received his data by interisland cable from Zamboango, where the commander-in-chief of the Philippine division, Maj.-Gen. Leonard Wood, happened to be.

Secretary Taft was at a Cabinet meeting when the official cablegram was finally deciphered and a copy of it was sent at once to the executive office, and the Cabinet members present listened with keenest interest to its reading by Secretary Taft. After his return to the War Department, Secretary Taft, commenting upon the engagement, said:

"Gen. Wood appears to have been there by accident, or rather without any idea of what was going to happen. I had a cablegram from him saying there were some matters calling him to the southern islands, but he would not be out of reach of the cable, and I suppose when he got there he found the trouble on. Gen. Bliss, who, as commander of the Department of Mindanao, exercises military jurisdiction over the Jolo group was probably at Zamboango when Gen. Wood arrived there on his trip of inspection. Here is Wood's cablegram:

"'MANILA, Feb. 26.—Leaving for Zamboango. Be absent eight days. Civil and military business preparatory to turning over duties as Governor Moro provinces; shall be constantly in cable communication.'"

SOMETHING ABOUT JOLO.

The data relative to Gen. Wood's movements were produced by the Secretary in response to a suggestion that possibly Gen. Wood may have gone to Jolo with the intention of organizing a punitive expedition against the Moros in the mountain fastnesses who had

GET SQUADRON READY IN CHINESE WATERS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

HONGKONG, March 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Rear-Admiral Charles J. Train, Commander Frederick W. Coffin and other officers of the Asiatic fleet have returned to Hongkong after a visit to Canton, where they had an interview with the Viceroy relative to the anti-foreign and anti-American movement. They learned that the merchants and gentry had been victorious in their fight against the Viceroy's scheme to levy additional taxes for building the Chinese part of the Canton-Hankow Railroad.

It is the consensus of opinion among the officers that there is unrest throughout China, and they have decided to put all the gunboats available into commission.

The American squadron here includes the battleships Ohio (flagship) and Wisconsin. The monitor Monadnock, the gunboat Callao and Quiros and the torpedo boats Barry and Bainbridge are at Canton. The cruisers Cincinnati and Raleigh are at Shanghai; the gunboat Villelobos is at Chingkiang, and the gunboat El Cano is on a cruise up the Yangtsekiang.

Impression of Liberalizing of Expenses Is Strong After the Session.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, March 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Insurance World asks these changes:

Limitation of the amount of insurance which a company may write in a year to $150,000,000, the maximum, and graduated according to the amount of insurance carried.

"This would cut our business in two."—Alexander E. Orr, president of the New York Life.

Annual distribution of a proportion of the surplus and abolition of deferred dividend policies.

"Do not strike down the system that has built up our business and provided the surplus which makes it safe."—Joel Vancise, actuary of the Equitable.

Prohibition of investment of insurance funds in stocks and like securities.

"This would paralyze the insurance business."—Paul Morton, president of the Equitable.

Limitation of the cost of procuring new business.

"This would deprive of a means of livelihood thousands of citizens of this State."—W. C. Johnson, champion of the insurance agents.

Limitation of salaries of officers of companies.

"This would cause the loss of some of our best men."—All of the companies.

ALBANY (N. Y.) March 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] At the close, tonight, of one of the most remarkable public hearings in the history of New York legislation, the impression is almost general that Section 98 of the proposed new life insurance law will be liberalized in its present limitation of expenses, so as to give the companies or their agency forces somewhat greater margin, and that, in most other important particulars, the bills are likely to go through without material alterations.

It cannot be denied that the brigade of agents, nearly eight hundred in number, who swarmed into the Assembly chamber at 2 o'clock, representing every section of the State, from New York City to Buffalo, made a deep impression. The eloquent and logical appeal made by their spokesman, William C. Johnson, chairman of the Legislative Committee of the Life Underwriters' Association of New York, was the most striking feature of the afternoon session. He talked in behalf of the agents for fully two hours, answered all question put to him by the lawmakers with the skill of a ready debater, and ever and anon prevented volleys of cheers from his colleagues, whose blue silk badges waved from every corner of the Assembly chamber and from the galleries above, which were crowded to suffocation.

CHEERS AND THE CHAIR.

Once, when Johnson made a particularly telling point, there was so loud and long a cheer that Senator Armstrong rapped his gavel repeatedly and then remarked good-naturedly to the orator: "We are glad to hear from your friends, and glad to know they are pleased, but I need to remind you that mere noise is not going to influence the views of the committee."

There was no great throng in the Assembly chamber when Senator Armstrong, promptly at 11 o'clock, called the hearing to order. The special train loaded with the New York City agents had not arrived. But all the seating capacity of the chamber was comfortably filled, the members of the Armstrong committtee and those of the Assembly's standing Committee on Insurance occupying the front row of chairs. They looked like men fairly self-satisfied, but in a properly receptive frame of mind and ready to be convinced of their fallibility.

On one side of the chamber sat the three presidents of the "Big Three" side by side, Paul Morton of the Equitable, Charles A. Peabody of the Mutual and Alexander E. Orr of the New York Life, all chatting amicably and making common cause against a common danger.

MORTON FIRST SPEAKER.

President Morton of the Equitable Life Assurance Society was the first speaker. He admitted that serious evils had crept into the insurance business, and assured the committee that he was in accord with its general purposes. He said, however, that if these bills were enacted without changes, it would seriously injure the insurance interests of the State.

Morton then took up the changes in the bills he would suggest. In brief, he believed that with certain qualifications insurance companies should be allowed the same latitude in the matter of investments as heretofore.

Morton recommended with reference to existing investments that life insurance companies be permitted to retain their present investments in collateral trust bonds and in railroad stocks, and also their present investments in banks and trust companies, providing that in no case shall an insurance company hold over 20 per cent. of the stock of a bank or trust company. He objected to the proposed standard forms of policies. The large mutual companies should be permitted to issue non-participating policies. He accepted the proposed limitation upon new business, but maintained that the companies should be permitted to make good annual losses by termination. The law should fix a minimum, not a maximum, contingency reserve percentage. There should be some limit upon expenditures, but the proposed limitation would not allow for inevitable uncertainties, and it was sure to "paralyze" the insurance business. Insurance companies should be permitted to participate in syndicates holding securities legal for investments; otherwise, they must pay more for them than parties to the syndicates.

Alexander E. Orr, president of the New York Life, followed Morton. Charles A. Peabody, president of the Mutual Life, and George P. Ide, president of the Home Life, were also heard.

J. G. Van Ness, actuary of the Equitable, argued against the proposition to prohibit the deferred dividend plan.

There was little reference to the more sensational disclosures of the insurance investigation, and no opposition to the recommendations designed to stop and prevent corrupt practices, campaign contributions and the like. The hearing was adjourned until next Tuesday afternoon.

MUTUAL LIFE COMMITTEE.

PARTIAL LIST OF MEMBERS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, March 9.—The Mutual Life Policy Holders Association has given but a partial list of the members of the Executive Committee, which is to consist of one member from each State, with the announced purpose of bringing about a reformation in the management of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York. B. N. Baker of Baltimore, president of the Baltimore Trust and Guarantee Company, was chosen as chairman. Representatives from but a few eastern and southern States have been named so far. Committeemen from other States are being selected. John DeWitt Warner and D. Cady Herrick of New York, counsel for the association, are expected to appear at Albany before the committee of the New York Legislature in the interest of policy holders.

BUENOS AYRES, March 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Prensa tomorrow will publish an editorial denying that Argentina is negotiating a defensive alliance, or is opposed to the legitimate continental influence of the United States, provided this does not affect the integrity of the South American republics.

The Prensa, however, combats President Roosevelt's doctrine about the collection of debts, as being contrary to international law. It says: "The programme of the next Pan-American conference should not contain the idea of hegemony or paramountship. If the United States is not disposed to obtain the consent of the South American republics, it would be preferable not to include Monroeism in the programme."

It concludes by saying that President Roosevelt's policy is quite different from the Monroe Doctrine.

Gen. Leonard Wood.

FIGHTING MOROS.

held out for the past two years against the American forces. The Secretary said that he had made two trips to Jolo, the last during his visit to the Philippines last summer. Refreshing his recollections by some official figures at hand, he said:

"The island of Jolo is 326 miles in area, with a population of 44,718 people and a density of eighteen inhabitants per square mile. In the whole commandancy of Jolo, there were only 1278 civilized, as compared with 50,119 wild inhabitants. Jolo is the most important island of the archipelago of that name, lying south of Zamboango in 6 deg. north latitude. The surface is covered with hills, which in a few cases, such as Bahua, 2810 feet; Butpla, 2720 feet, and Tamalanguis, 2940 feet, rise to the dignity of mountain.

MT. DAJO.

"Mt. Dajo, referred to in the dispatch, was probably not mentioned in the same connection with these mountains, because it was only 2100 feet high. The Jolo archipelago is inhabited by two races of people, the Jolos and the Sismas, the former a Malay people, long inhabiting the Jolo Islands, who have been proselyted to Mohammedanism.

"The Sultan lives in a native town near the city of Jolo, and is the nominal head of all Moros there and in Mindanao. The latter recognize him, however, at their convenience and when it suits their purpose. Two or three Dattos have already resisted the Sultan's claim, and there has already been a state of war between them. The Sultan's control over them, therefore, is quite limited, and with three warring factions in the Island, the jealousy of the support of the Americans for one side is quite enough to keep them in a constant state of turbulence and fighting. I suppose one of the factions thought it had gotten together men enough and they were absolutely immune, so they were just cleaned out.

"By the way, it is worth noting that the constabulary, which is highly praised in Gen. Wood's dispatch for its work, was in that section made up of Moros themselves. It has never been difficult to enlist them in our service to fight against their own people when called upon, probably owing to the number of factions in the islands. In this particular case the heavy mortality among the Moros engaged would probably be explained by their method of fighting. It would have been impossible to have inflicted the same loss upon the northern Filipinos. The latter have a way of disappearing before the troops in the interstices of the jungles and conducting a guerrilla warfare. But the Moros, on the appearance of the enemy, sound the alarm and gather everybody inside their forts, where they will fight to the end. Probably the heavy loss in this case was caused by the fire of the soldiers' artillery.

"No, I have not the least fear that this movement will extend to the other islands, and, in fact, I think that the heavy blow struck the Moros will have a strongly deterrent effect upon them."

TROOPS IN JOLO.

WELL ADAPTED TO FIELD.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, March 9.—The last list of troops stationed in the Philippines at the War Department shows that, January 20, the following troops were stationed on the island of Jolo: Companies I and L, Fourth Cavalry, and the Twenty-eighth Battery Field Artillery; Companies I, K, L and M of the Twentieth Infantry had been stationed at Jolo, but are understood to have been relieved by a battalion of the Sixth Infantry, commanded by Col. Duncan, in January. Col. Duncan was the superior officer on the field save Maj.-Gen. Wood and Brig.-Gen. Bliss.

Assuming that the organizations were up to their normal strength, there were about 490 soldiers in the action, besides the naval contingent, the strength of which is so far unknown. It is believed, however, that owing to the sick list and other causes there probably were not more than 400 of the military engaged. The strength of the constabulary is also unknown.

The official dispatch does not enable the authorities here to place exactly the scene of the combat. The only crater known on the island of Jolo is well toward the center of the island and some distance removed from the capital, which is on the seacoast. There is, however, near the city of Jolo, distant only five miles, a mountain answering closely, having a crater of the description given in the dispatch. The mountain was controlled by two dattos, Calbi and Joakinine, the latter one of the chieftains who signed the famous "Bates treaty." The mountain is very steep, and its apex is a Moro fortress which had never been trodden by white troops.

GEN. BATES REASSURES.

Lieut.-Gen. Bates, chief of staff, who has seen service in the southern islands of the group and is well acquainted with the Jolo country, has no fear that this last trouble will extend throughout the group. In the first place, he says, there is no homogenity among these island tribes, strong jealousies existing, and it has been impossible for them to cohere in opposition to the whites.

It is also believed here, from the official dispatch, that the Moros attacked were really a set of robbers, and that the action was undoubtedly precipitated by Gen. Wood's determination to exterminate them at any cost.

MOVEMENTS OF GUNBOATS.

The movements of the gunboats which had been detailed from the Asiatic fleet for duty in the southern islands of the Philippine group are reported only to the commander-in-chief of the Asiatic station at Manila, and the Navy Department consequently is without information as to the whereabouts of the ships until a considerable time has elapsed. However, the fact that Ensign H. S. Cooke, Jr., is reported to have been wounded establishes the further fact that the gunboat Pampanga, a small craft of about two hundred tons, was at Jolo, for this young officer is the commander of the vessel. Cooke is a native of the District of Columbia, but was appointed to the navy from New York, where his father lives. He has been on duty on the Asiatic station since 1902, and because of his good record recently relieved Oscar F. C. Cooper, in command of the Pampanga, of which prior to that time he had been acting as executive officer.

DEPARTMENT OF JOLO.

The Department of Jolo is now in command of Brig.-Gen. Tasker H. Bliss. It was formerly commanded by Maj.-Gen. Leonard Wood, who afterwards became commander-in-chief of the Philippine division, upon the departure of Gen. Corbin. Some of the army officers here who had served in the Jolo group say that Mount Dajo, the scene of the action, is located about fourteen miles from Jolo, the capital of the island. Morocorito is on the very top of the mountain. Once before its garrison of natives was induced to vacate the place by the exercise of diplomacy, but heretofore no force has been able to capture it.

FORT LEAVENWORTH TROOPS.

The Sixth Infantry, which seems to have borne the brunt of the fighting, was from Fort Leavenworth, and has been in the Philippines about a year.

NO RETALIATION FEARED.

The officers of the General Staff fully acquainted with the habits of the Moros say they have not the slightest fear that the Moros will try to retaliate for the crushing defeat. These officers judge from the dispatch from Manila that there were really two actions, the first probably a surprise and serving merely to locate the position and establish the strength of the Moro defenders. This having been done, this second day seems to have been occupied in hoisting the artillery and ammunition to positions from which to operate upon the Moro fortress in the crater, and the second action, fought under the conditions described, on the slope of the mountain, undoubtedly broke the Moro strength in that locality for an indefinite time.

CAPT. TYREE RIVERS.

Capt. Tyree Rivers, who was slightly wounded in the thigh, was born May 10, 1863, in Mississippi, was appointed a cadet in the Military Academy from Tennessee July 1, 1879; second lieutenant Third Cavalry, June 12, 1883; first lieutenant Third Cavalry, January 17, 1889, and captain Fourth Cavalry March 2, 1899.

LIEUT. GORDON JOHNSTON.

First Lieut. Gordon Johnston, who was seriously wounded, in the shoulder, was born in North Carolina in 1874. He is a graduate of Princeton and an honor graduate of the Infantry and Cavalry School in 1903. He first entered the army at the outbreak of the Spanish War, and was appointed from Alabama as a sergeant in Company M, Second Mississippi Infantry. In 1899 he became a second lieutenant in the Forty-third U. S. Infantry. In 1901, he entered the regular army as a second lieutenant in the Tenth Cavalry. In 1902, he became a lieutenant of the Fifteenth Cavalry, and in 1903 was appointed a first lieutenant in the Signal Corps.

FIRST LIEUT. ERNEST AGNEW.

First Lieut. Ernest Agnew, in 1898, was a second lieutenant of the Twentieth Kansas Volunteer Infantry, serving throughout the Spanish and Philippine campaigns, and became captain of the Eleventh United States Volunteer Cavalry, in 1899. He was appointed second lieutenant in the regular army, February 2, 1901, reaching the grade of first lieutenant, February 23.

First Lieut. Wylie T. Conway, a native of Illinois, entered the army as a private, May 27, 1898, and February 2, 1901, he was commissioned a second lieutenant.

WASHINGTON INTERESTED.

LONGWORTH DISCUSSES NEWS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, March 9.—The Associated Press dispatches of the Jolo battle were particularly interesting to members of the House who were with the Taft expedition to the Philippines last summer. Representative Longworth remarked on reading the message of Gen. Wood:

"I remember that little island well. We went all over it. It was there the Sultan of Sulu entertained us with an exhibition of the native sports, including buffalo fights. The inhabitants of the island are entirely uncivilized, being Mohammedans, and religious fanatics of the most pronounced type. They have no military organization, and their fights are all inspired by religious beliefs.

"At any time a priest among any of the mountain bands can inspire an uprising. Then a swoop on the lower country will be made. They believe that if killed in battle they will go directly to heaven, and it makes them desperate and anxious to fight to the death."

PITH OF NEWS FROM THE MIDDLE WEST.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, March 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] To accommodate the increasing interest manifested in weather topics, Prof. Henry J. Cox, the local forecaster, has undertaken to deliver a series of "weather lectures," and tonight nearly a thousand persons crowded into the Federal building dome, and listened to the prediction that the coming summer will be one of the hottest on record. Prof. Cox did not attempt to explain the weather of today, which was unusually freakish. Sunshine, snow flurries and rain were crowded into a 30-minute period in the afternoon. Temperature extremes were 35 and 45 degs. Middle West temperatures:

ARREST OF MACK.

While a guest at a dinner party given at the home of his sweetheart in Evanston, Walter L. Mack of South Bend, Ind., was arrested on a charge of embezzling $500 preferred by A. B. Allen, a business man. Mack, who posed as a millionaire, was received in the best society of Evanston and gained the support of wealthy men in several business ventures. W. H. Warren, father of the young man fiancée, signed his bond for $1000.

BOTH EAMES GUILTY.

After several days of sensational testimony in the Eames divorce case, each side furnishing damaging evidence against the other, the jury was unable to decide which was the most guilty, the man or the woman and brought in a double verdict, finding John H. Eames and his wife, Mrs. Henrietta Eames, each guilty. This means that neither will be granted a divorce unless by a new trial.

HE BOWED POLITELY.

A faultlessly-dressed robber entered the home of Vernon C. King on Prairie avenue, this afternoon, placed a revolver against Mrs. King's head and forced her to surrender her money and jewelry. Then, selecting a few other valuables that attracted his attention, he bowed politely and took his departure.

SAVED BY YOUNG HERO.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHARLOTTE (Mich.) March 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] When nine-year old Effie Frysinger broke through the ice, today, and was struggling in the water, Paul Grier, a 10-year-old schoolmate of the little girl, secured a fence rail shoved one end out to the child and sat on the other to balance Effie's weight, until rescuers arrived, attracted by his cries.

TABOO THE "WINK."

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TERRE HAUTE (Ind.) March 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The City Council passed an ordinance, tonight, making it unlawful for the Mayor or the Police Board president to issue orders to the police with a "wink" or any other sign. President Kanseliter told the Council he had given orders to close saloons "mit a wink."

TEXAS COLOR LINE.

PRINCETON (Ill.) March 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Baseball Evangelist "Billy" Sunday has established a world's record by converting 1300 persons out of a total population of 5000 in a series of revival meetings just concluded.

PACIFIC COAST DISCUSSION.

GENS. CORBIN AND GREELY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, March 9.—Maj.-Gen. Corbin, recently in command of the Division of the Philippines, left his hotel early this morning before learning of the engagement near Jolo. In his absence, one of his aides, Capt. J. A. Penn of the Seventh Infantry, who has just returned from the Philippines, after reading the Associated Press account of the fatal conflict, expressed himself as follows:

"I am grieved to learn that our casualties were so heavy, but am pleased at the fact that a substantial victory was achieved. The fight is simply one of a series that have occurred in the work of pacifying the islands. It is not likely to lead to further engagements in the near future, as the Moros on the island of Jolo are not united under any leader. They are grouped into small bands, each under a petty chief. One village may be destroyed without affecting its neighbors, who seem indifferent to the fate of any except their own people.

"The success of our troops means simply the practical extermination of a dangerous body of outlaws, who might have caused much trouble, and this result will deter others inclined to defy the authority of the United States."

GEN. GREELY'S COMMENT.

Maj.-Gen. A. W. Greely, who today takes command of the Department of the Pacific, said that he did not expect further trouble on the island of Jolo, which was small, and did not contain a large population. Similar engagements had occurred before, and each defeat of the lawless bands tended to insure peace. It was an incident of the campaign, not the beginning of new trouble.

CORBIN COMPARES NATIVES.

Maj.-Gen. H. C. Corbin, recently in command of the Division of the Philippines, read with much interest the Associated Press news of the fight on the island of Jolo. He said:

"This encounter has no bearing on the Philippine situation. The Moros are religious fanatics, and are not amenable to the influences of other peoples. They owe no allegiance except to their Mohammedan faith, and are liable to cause trouble at any time. Their acts have no more relation to the conduct of the Filipinos than the Apache outbreak of former days in Arizona with the situation in other States and Territories.

"No man can tell what the Moros are going to do. They are just as likely to fight among themselves as to attack others. When an individual Moro feels what he calls an inspiration, he 'runs amuck' and kills all he can. This condition has always existed, and presumably always will until the race becomes extinct. However, we are now educating many of their children, and from this enlightened generation there may spring a new and better type of Moro.

"Probably there are about five thousand Moros on the island of Jolo. The number on Mindanao has been estimated as high as 40,000, but it is impossible to obtain a census, and this figure may be much exaggerated.

"I do not anticipate that this fatal encounter will materially change the situation. Certainly it will not affect the Filipinos, who are loyal and satisfied with the conditions surrounding them."

THE SIXTH INFANTRY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

LEAVENWORTH (Kan.) March 9.—The Sixth Infantry, which participated in the fight with the Moros near Jolo, was last stationed at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., going to the Philippines from there. The Sixth Infantry is one of the oldest regiments in the United States. The officers mentioned as wounded in the engagement are all well known here. Capt. L. M. Koehler is a son-in-law of the late Col. D. R. Anthony, the noted editor of the Leavenworth Times. The wife of Capt. Rivers, one of the wounded, is now in San Francisco. News of the engagement created intense interest at Fort Leavenworth.

BREATHES LIFE INTO FINDINGS.

Speaker Cannon Comments on Rate Measure Passed by House—Lumbermen Dine.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, March 9.—A banquet at the New Willard Hotel last night brought the lumbermen's meeting to a close.

Speaker Cannon and Senator Carter of Montana were among those present at the banquet. To Senator Carter was assigned the subject "The Timber Thieves of Montana," and he responded in a light vein, addressing the gathering as "brothers of the profession."

Speaker Cannon said that the rate legislation matter was the first upon which the parties had agreed in thirty years and he defined the measure passed by the House as breathing the breath of life into the findings of the Interstate Commerce Commission. The Speaker said the rules of the Senate were honored rather in the breach than in the observance.

KIDNAP ILLINOIS CAVALRYMEN.

CHICAGO, March 9.—Bound hand and foot, three members of Troop C First Illinois Cavalry, were kidnaped from their armory last night by three other members, who engaged a teamster to carry them away. They were rescued only after a free-for-all fight. Later, the ringleaders were arrested on the order of Alderman Milton J. Foreman, acting lieutenant-colonel of the regiment, and were taken to a police station. According to Alderman Foreman, the kidnapping was the result of bitter personal feeling toward the three kidnapped men. The men who carried out the scheme contend that it was done to break up a faction which it appeared was about to elect Burt Lloyd lieutenant of Troop C. Harry Ullum was their candidate for the office.

Packers Produce a Letter.

CHICAGO, March 9.—T. M. Robertson, special agent for the government, declared in a letter produced in court today that he had declined to examine any of the books of Armour & Co., if the packers desired him to pledge that the information would not be published by President Roosevelt. He was asked by Attorney Miller, in behalf of Armour & Co., if he would say that he had an opportunity to decline to take the information if he was compelled to make a pledge that the President would not publish it. Mr. Robertson replied that he would not say that he had such an opportunity, and the attorney then brought out the letter. Mr. Robertson declared that the letter referred to another matter entirely.

Facing Charges, He Kills Himself.

PORTLAND, March 9.—A dispatch to the Telegram from Eugene, Or., says that Chief of Police Joseph S. Stiles commited suicide last night by shooting himself in the head. His body was found early today in an old tannery building on the outskirts of the city. Stiles was 53 years old, a man of family and a member of the Christian Church. The cause of the deed is supposedly in connection with investigations of the grand jury in regard to a statutory charge, combined with giving liquor to young girls. Constable Virgil Rowland was indicted last night as a result of these investigations and it is asserted that other indictments are probable.

Stanford to Abolish Degree.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, March 9.—The degree of Bachelor of Laws will no longer be conferred at Stanford University. Hereafter a student in law completing a three years' course will be given the degree of juris doctor. The Academic Council took this action at its last meeting, in recognition of similar action in eastern universities, notably Chicago, Columbia and New York.

"SOUTH OF THE TEHACHEPI."

NEWS SUMMARY OF THE SOUTHERN COUNTIES.

A $20,000 packing plant is assured for Huntington Beach by an incorporation which has just been organized for that purpose. It is expected that a wide range of vegetables will be grown on the near-by peatlands and packed at the cannery. The saving of large quantities of celery, broken so as not to be marketable otherwise, is also contemplated.

Arbor Day was celebrated by the public schools of Riverside yesterday. A feature was the planting of a tree in honor of S. C. Evans, the donor of a school park.

A grape juice factory is being planned for Rochester, San Bernardino county.

The chief engineer of the Los Angeles Railway Company has submitted a proposition to the citizens of Glendale and Verdugo offering to establish an electric line from Los Angeles within ninety days after right of way is secured, and a bonus of $20,000 guaranteed.

A sack of Ventura county lima beans has been sent to the King of Italy. Leopoldo Schiappapietra, a millionaire ranch owner of that county, recently visited the Italian ruler and told him about the fortunes made in that legume. The King asked that a sample of the beans be sent to him. A sack of the beans has been forwarded.

Ventura county sees two gubernatorial candidates looming up within her borders. They are Hon. David T. Perkins, business partner of ex-Senator Bard, and Hon. Thomas Orlando Toland, ex-member of the State Board of Equalization.

Glendale Methodists have let the contract for a $5800 church.

FINDS FORTUNE IN GOLD INGOTS.

HIDDEN TREASURE UNEARTHED BY PROSPECTOR.

While Digging Along the Alamo River Thomas O'Brien Suddenly Comes Upon Stack of Shining Bars Which Are Said to Be Worth Ten Thousand Dollars.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BRAWLEY, March 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] While working along the bank of the Alamo River, Thomas O'Brien was astonished to find hidden under a crumbling bank a number of ingots which proved to be of gold. The weight of the lot was sixty pounds and the estimated value is said to be in the neighborhood of $10,000. The largest piece weighed over twenty pounds while the others ranged much smaller in size. It is thought that the ingots were left by robbers of pioneer days who had lost track of the hiding place. O'Brien is elated over his good fortune and will take the first train to Los Angeles in the morning with his find.

UNITED TO OPPOSE MINERS.

PITTSBURGH, March 9.—When the coal operators of the Pittsburgh district go to the general convention at Indianapolis, March 19, with the operators of Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, they will take a stand as a body. This action was determined at the meeting called by Francis L. Robbins, and which was held in this city today. There were about fifty operators present.

PUTS BABCOCK ON THE GRILL.

COURT DECIDES AGAINST HIM AT SAN DIEGO.

Renders Opinion in Favor of Defendants in Case of E. S. Babcock and Graham E. Babcock Against the Southern California Mountain Water Company and J. D. Spreckels.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN DIEGO, March 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The decision of Judge Bledsoe of San Bernardino in the suit of E. S. Babcock and Graham E. Babcock against the Southern California Mountain Water Company and John D. Spreckels was received this afternoon.

The San Bernardino judge decides against the Babcocks on every contention raised in the complaint. Attorneys for the Babcocks say that an appeal will be taken immediately, and that if necessary the case will be taken to the highest court in the land.

This is interesting in view of the recent rumor that a settlement of the matters involved might be made out of court.

In the course of his opinion Judge Bledsoe finds that "Plaintiff, E. S. Babcock, entered into a solemn agreement with the Spreckels Company that all shares of stock of the corporation should be purchased by them and divided equally between them. On the faith of that, the Spreckels Company invested heavily in the water company. While pretending to live up to that covenant E. S. Babcock secretly purchased and secretly retained for his own use and benefit certain stock of the corporation, and from all appearance it must be concluded that he did so with the intent and purpose at some time to wrest the control of the corporation from the Spreckels Company.

"There can be no gainsaying that this was a flagrant and unconscionable violation of his agreement with the Spreckels Company. It was only by means of this violation of the agreement that he is enabled to come into court and now claim that he had on the 21st of August the control of the corporation; if he had kept the covenant by him entered into with the Spreckels Company and divided with it all the stock purchased by him, he never could have made the claim that he was in control of the corporation.

"Furthermore, if he had kept faith with the Spreckels Company the sale complained of to John D. Spreckels, Jr., would never have been made, and he never would have had occasion to claim that he was being ousted from such control.

"What has been said herein is not to be taken as a suggestion that any fraud at any stage of the proceedings was perpetrated or attempted by any of the defendants herein. They may have acted in excess of their powers, but if so, I am constrained to believe that they did so from honorable motives and with no intention to do anything other than to protect the interests of the J. D. Spreckels & Bros. Company."

WAR WITH CHINA WILL NOT BE.

GEN. CORBIN SAYS CONDITIONS ARE EXAGGERATED.

Anti-Foreign Feeling Due in Large Measure to Underhanded Getting of Concessions — Missionaries Also Cause Resentment by Attempts to Foist New Creeds Upon Natives.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, March 9.—"There will be no war between the United States and China," said Maj.-Gen. Henry C. Corbin, upon his arrival from the Orient on the steamer Korea, yesterday. "So far as I have been able to observe, the reported disturbances in China have been grossly exaggerated and conditions are not nearly so alarming as one would be led to suppose from reports that have been published abroad throughout the western world. That there have been disturbances is quite true, but I do not think they menace the peace of China and the United States or that of any other nation.

"The feeling against Americans in China does not exceed that entertained toward all other foreigners, and as I understand the situation the entire anti-foreign feeling is due in a large measure to the exploitation of business enterprises which the Chinese feel should be controlled by their own people. There is a feeling against those who have in various ways obtained through scheming and corrupt officials franchises and concessions vested in their own people. They are willing to refund to foreign investors the money they have spent in the country. In fact, this was done in the case of the Hankow and Canton Railroad.

RESENT MISSIONARIES.

"Aside from this chief source of anti-foreign feeling, the troubles in China are due to the presence of missionaries. I was assured by a very prominent Chinese that the Chinese people are not all friendly to the presence of the missionaries. They resent the efforts of the missionaries to force a lot of new creeds on their people. The Chinese have perhaps a more firmly fixed religious belief than any other people in the world and they look upon the religions of the western world with scant favor.

"The Chinese government is as friendly to the people and government of the United States as toward any other, although nothing has a greater tedency to strain them than the frequent publication of false reports and threatened armed invasions. Although not encouraged by the government in any way, these reports constitute a grave menace to the continuance of amicable relations between Chinese and Americans, for these misleading reports, by means of the native press, are circulated broadcast throughout the empire, and find ready credence among the masses."

MORE PLEASANT RELATIONS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

HONGKONG, March 9.—The friction existing for some time between the Viceroy of Canton and the American representatives there has given place to more pleasant relations, which state of affairs has been signalized by an exchange of courtesies. The Viceroy gave a banquet in honor of Rear-Admiral Train, March 5, while the Viceroy and a number of high officials attended a reception at the American Consulate, March 7. This was the first function for some months at which the Viceroy had exchanged amenities with the Americans.

LONDON, March 9.—The Chinese Minister called on Foreign Secretary Gray today to assure him that China is making every effort to prevent a spread of the anti-foreign feeling.

SADDLING CRIME ON SANTA CRUZ.

MONTEREY WOULD EVADE COST OF TRIAL FOR KILLING.

Deed Committed Just Across the Boundary Line Results in Interesting Conflict of Authorities of Respective Counties, Neither of Which Will Give Man in Jail a Hearing.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WATSONVILLE, March 9.—The killing of Bert Phelan by Al Kather has resulted in an interesting conflict between the authorities of Monterey and Santa Cruz counties. The crime was committed just across the boundary line and the arrest was made by officers of this city and the prisoner lodged in jail here.

This morning, the Sheriff and the District Attorney of Monterey county arrived in this city and stated that, under the law where a public offense is committed within 500 yards of the boundary line of two or more counties, the jurisdiction is in either county; and, as the officials of this county had arrested the prisoner and he was in custody here, they would have nothing to do with the case and left for home.

Soon after, District Attorney Knight of Santa Cruz came to this city and said he did not propose to allow an expensive trial of this kind to be saddled upon the people of Santa Cruz county when they are in no wise concerned with the case except through the matter of accommodation to the Monterey officers and in the furtherance of justice.

In the meanwhile, Kather remains in jail, with the officials of both counties refusing to give him a hearing.

TELLS ORIGIN OF RIOTS.

DAYTON (O.) March 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] After two hours of sweating in the office of Sheriff Wright at the County Jail, today, Preston Ladd, colored, told the story of the shooting of Mark Davis at Springfield, which resulted not only in Davis's death, but in the riot of last week.

"I asked a man in the yard if that freight train went through to Bellefontaine," said Ladd. "He said no, and said he did not have time to talk. I said I would make him talk. We followed him along the south side of the train until we reached the engine. Then Dean shot; I think he shot through his coat pocket. I saw the man fall and the lantern fell beside him. I ran back down the track and never saw Dean again that night."

PROTECTS DIVORCED MOTHER.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 9.—Alexander Racouellet, aged 17 years, last night shot and mortally wounded his stepfather, Earl E. Waterman, a house mover, livin in the Potrero district.

Some months ago the boy's mother secured a divorce from Waterman on the ground of cruelty. The ex-husband tried to effect a reconciliation, but without avail. Last night he visited the home of his former wife, and it is charged that he maltreated her. The woman ran to a neighbor's, secured a revolver and returned to the house.

The boy took the pistol from her, and he claims Waterman then approached him menacingly with a knife. Young Racouellet fired three shots, one of which entered Waterman's abdomen, making a wound which the surgeons say will cause death.

The boy is under arrest.

POLICY HOLDERS CAUTIOUS.

LONDON, March 9.—The Earl of Onslow (Conservative) gave notice in the House of Lords today of his intention to question the government as to whether, in view of the disclosures made regarding certain American insurance companies, it purposes to compel foreign insurance companies doing business in Great Britain to keep in this country a sufficient proportion of their securities to cover the claims of British policy holders. The matter will come up in the House next week.

Senate Passes Statehood Bill Without Her.

Burrows Gets Her Cut Out With New Mexico.

Foraker's Masterly Control. Beveridge's "Telegrams."

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, March 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] So much of the Hamilton Statehood Bill as provides for the admission of Oklahoma and Indian Territory as one State of the Union passed the Senate today.

So much of the bill as relates to the admission of New Mexico and Arizona as one State was stricken from the pending measure.

The simple proposition is now submitted to Speaker Cannon and the House of Representatives: Shall Oklahoma and Indian Territory be admitted to Statehood?

Senator Burrows.

The Senate struck New Mexico and Arizona from the bill by a close vote of 37 to 35. On the first vote taken on this proposition, which was submitted by Senator Burrows in committee of the whole, the vote stood 36 to 35. Senator Scott, who had just entered the chamber, did not understand the nature of the amendment, and voted in the negative. The situation was subsequently explained to him, and when the second vote was taken he voted in the affirmative. Senator Overman, who had a general pair with Senator Clarke of Arkansas, transferred his pair to Senator Carmack, and also voted in the affirmative, making 37 votes for the amendment.

LOOKING OUT FOR CANNON.

As an additional precaution, in order that Speaker Cannon—who is known to be antagonistic to the admission of Oklahoma and Indian Territory, provided the other two Territories are not omitted, might not have an opportunity to refer the bill to a House committee, every amendment of the Senate committee changing an appropriation was defeated. The appropriation carried for Oklahoma and Indian Territory was thus left just as it came to the Senate from the House. If Oklahoma and Indian Territory are not admitted, the Speaker of the House and the membership must assume full responsibility. There is no longer any contest as to provisions regarding New Mexico and Arizona. It is the general impression tonight that the House will yield. Every vote in the Republican House caucus was cast for the admission of Oklahoma and Indian Territory.

FORAKER WAS MASTER.

The Senate situation today was intense. It was apparent from the beginning that Senator Foraker had ousted Senator Beveridge and the Committee on Territories. The only question was whether New Mexico and Arizona would be stricken out. This latter proposition was in doubt until the adjournment of the Senate at 6 o'clock. The final vote on the Foraker referendum proposition differed only from the poll sent to The Times several days ago, in the votes of Senators Dryden and Scott and Spooner. These three Senators supported the Foraker proposition and gave it the majority of 12.

In view of the final result, the minor amendments adopted regarding New Mexico and Arizona are of no practical consequence. Arizona's victory could not have been more complete. In order to accomplish it, the Senate Committee on Territories had to be overthrown and the Speaker of the House defied. Arizona won with thirteen votes to spare. Its majority would have been larger had not three Senators absented themselves until paired.

FIRST TEST VOTE.

The first test vote taken in the Senate was over a committee amendment which proposed to increase an appropriation from $100,000 to $150,000 for defraying election expenses in Oklahoma. Senator Foraker objected to this amendment. He did not state his reasons, but everybody conversant with the situation understood his sole purpose was to prevent the Senate from changing any of the appropriations carried in the House bill in order that when the bill was sent back to the House there would be no rule which the Speaker could invoke for sending the bill to committee. Several other Senators who have supported the Foraker amendment were absent and not paired.

With the Foraker amendment adopted, it was recognized that the fate of Arizona and New Mexico had been sealed for this session. The only question then involved was as to whether these two Territories should be stricken entirely from the bill. The determination to press this amendment was not reached until it had become apparent that the oFraker referendum plan would be incorporated in the bill.

BURROWS AND MORMONS.

The motion to strike out all after the twenty-second section of the bill, that is, all that part of the bill relating to New Mexico and Arizona, was made by Senator Burrows, who put his objection to the admission of these Territories on the ground that Mormons who practice polygamy live in these Territories, and they could be better regulated by United States laws than by the State laws. The Democrats who voted to strike out these Territories did so in the hope that it would make the admission of Oklahoma and Indian Territory easier to accomplish.

The first vote to strike out the sections relating to New Mexico and Arizona failed by 35 to 36. There was a second ballot, and New Mexico and Arizona were stricken out.

The special-election proposition of Mr. Foraker, permitting each Territory to determine by vote whether it would accept Statehood, was more objectionable to Speaker Cannon and Senator Beveridge than any other.

Although friends of the Hamilton bill were in reality glad after the Foraker amendment had passed to have the Arizona and New Mexico section stricken out, they voted against the motion in order to keep their records clear for supporting the committee and the administration. The only surprises in this vote were Senators Scott confidentially counted by friends of the Hamilton bill, and had been printed in all polls as supporting the measure.

PROCEEDINGS IN DETAIL.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, March 9.—Owing to the fact that the Senate took a recess, instead of adjourning last night, Mr. Beveridge was enabled to proceed with his speech in support of the Joint Statehood Bill when today's session began at 11 o'clock. There was a much better attendance than at the opening yesterday.

Mr. Beveridge took up his argument where he left off yesterday, contending that the necessity for interpreters for the benefit of the Mexican population was rapidly passing, and arguing that very little attention should be given to the pledge for Statehood given when the Territory of Arizona was created, because it had been given as the result of fraudulent representations.

Mr. Beveridge was liberally applauded by the galleries when he concluded.

FRIDAY'S SESSION BEGINS.

The legislative session of Thursday came to an end at 12 o'clock, and the session of today was commenced at once.

Under the head of morning business, Mr. Beveridge undertook to have read a number of telegrams in support of the Statehood Bill, but Mr. Teller objected, on the ground that they should come in properly as a part of the discussion of the Statehood Bill. Mr. Beveridge then stated that he had received hundreds of messages, most of them from Arizona, urging joint admission.

"I, too, have received hundreds of messages on the subject of Statehood," responded Mr. Foraker. "One of them is from a gentleman who gives his name, and who says that a telegram signed by the Senator from Indiana is being circulated in Arizona urging that 500 telegrams be sent to the Senate from Arizona in favor of joint Statehood."

The announcement created a laugh at Mr. Beveridge's expense, and in which he joined. He said he knew nothing about the telegram.

The telegrams were not read.

SHOSHONES AND COLUMBIA.

A communication from Secretary Hitchcock, recommending an extension of the time for opening the Shoshone Indian Reservation in Wyoming from June 15 to August 15, was read.

A bill appropriating $400,000 for the improvement of the mouth of the Columbia River was passed.

MR. FORAKER SPEAKS.

Consideration of the Statehood Bill was then resumed, and Mr. Foraker made the first speech under the 10-minute rule. He pointed out that Arizona was not asking admission, and said there never had been an effort to force Statehood on an unwilling Territorial constituency.

AGAINST MORMONISM.

Mr. Dubois followed in support of an amendment offered by him prohibiting Mormons and polygamists from voting in the proposed State of Arizona, as was originally provided in the Idaho State test. He said he had seen a list of some fifty to one hundred polygamists living in Arizona, and there also were many in New Mexico. There was, he said, no power in Utah to punish polygamy, and Mormonism was so strong in its own State of Idaho that, notwithstanding the leader of the sect in that State had testified that he was the husband of three wives, there was no possibility of bringing him to account for it because of the political power of the church.

"Wherever there is Mormonism there is polygamy," he said, and added that the only way to prevent polygamy was to strike at the organization that encourages it.

LIST OF SPEAKERS.

Speeches were made by other Senators as follows: Mr. Spooner, saying that Mr. Beveridge's speech was at variance with the former reports of the Committee on Territories; Mr. Nelson, advocating the union of Arizona and New Mexico as the best plan for the Americanization of New Mexico; Mr. Teller, Mr. Hopkins, Mr. Hansbrough, Mr. Gallinger, Mr. Heyburn, Mr. Clark of Wyoming, Mr. Dillingham and Mr. Carter, who said that he was unalterably opposed to the coercion of any body of American citizens, much as he would like to vote for a bill supported by the President and a Republican House of Representatives. Brief speeches were also made by Messrs. Newlands, McCumber, Fulton, Smoot and Burrows.

SMOOT WOULD ANNEX.

The Utah Senator introduced an amendment annexing to his State all that part of Arizona lying north of the Colorado River, and spoke in support of it. He said the strip was unwatered, and without value.

BURROWS'S IMPORTANT MOVE.

Mr. Burrows advocated the elimination of Arizona and New Mexico from the bill, and presented an amendment to that end. He based his opposition on the ground that there were many polygamists in the two Territories, and spoke of polygamy as an "offense against the civilization of the age."

He said the real offense was not in plural marriages, but in polygamous cohabitation practiced after marriage elsewhere. He quoted from letters to show that there were many Mormons living in polygamy in Arizona and New Mexico, and said that notwithstanding the difficulty of getting testimony, there had been convictions for polygamy. In this connection he read a letter from the Attorney-General of the United States stating recently there had been thirty-one convictions under the Edmonds Act, a majority of which were for unlawful cohabitation. The Senator, therefore, said that he would oppose the admission of these Territories until they should purge themselves of this lawless element. He also quoted from testimony in the Smoot case to show that polygamy existed in the Territories.

BEVERIDGE AND FORAKER.

Towards the close of the debate Mr. Beveridge and Mr. Foraker engaged in a sharp colloquy over the number and contents of telegrams received by them respectively. Among the messages read by the Ohio Senator was one saying that Mr. Beveridge had wired to Arizona asking that telegrams be sent him. Mr. Beveridge, in reply, spoke of Delegate Smith of Arizona as Mr. Foraker's "Democratic helper."

"Why should the heathen rage?" asked Mr. Foraker.

"Why should the wicked flee when no man pursueth?" responded Mr. Beveridge.

He repeated the declaration that he had not made an appeal for testimonials from Arizona.

Mr. Dick spoke for the bill and Mr. Clarke against it, and Mr. Beveridge closed the debate in advocacy of the measure.

VOTING ON AMENDMENTS.

When, promptly at 4 o'clock, the gavel fell at the end of Mr. Beveridge's final appeal for the bill, the voting was begun. The amendments suggested by the committee were first read, and to them no objection was made until the proposition to increase from $100,000 to $150,000 the appropriation for defraying the expenses of preliminary elections to be had in the proposed State of Oklahoma. The amendment was lost by a vote of 31 to 40.

The increase of the election appropriation for Arizona from $150,000 to $175,000 also was disagreed to.

The first test vote came on these money proposals, and the opponents of joint Statehood scored a victory. The object of striking out the increase was to avoid the necessity of having the bill sent to a committee when returned to the House of Representatives.

Under the rules of the House, any bill amended by the Senate carrying increased expenditures must be referred to a committee and considered in committee of the whole. The opponents of joint Statehood desired to afford an opportunity for a motion to concur in the amendments without such reference.

FORAKER WINS.

As soon as the committee amendments were disposed of, Mr. Foraker formally offered his amendment providing for a separate vote on joint Statehood. The vote was immediately taken, and the amendment carried by the decisive vote of 42 to 29, as follows:

Yeas—Senators Alger, Bacon, Blackburn, Bulkley, Burrows, Carter, Clark (Mont.) Clark (Wyo.) Clay, Culberson, Daniel, Dryden, Dubois, Flint, Foraker, Fister, Frasier, Fulton, Gallinger, Gearin, Hansbrough, Heyburn, Lattimer, McCreary, McCumber, Mallory, Martin, Morgan, Newlands, Nixon, Patterson, Perkins, Pettus, Rayner, Scott, Simmons, Spooner, Stone, Sutherland, Taliaferro, Teller, Tillman—42.

Nays—Senators Alee, Allison, Ankeny, Beveridge, Brandegee, Burnham, Clapp, Crane, Cullom, Dick, Dillingham, Dolliver, Gamble, Hale, Hemenway, Hopkins, Kean, Knox, La Follette, Lodge, Long, Millard, Nelson, Penrose, Piles, Proctor, Smoot, Warner, Wetmore—29.

The pairs were as follows: Senators Aldrich with Berry, Elkins with Bailey, Burkett with McLaurin, Clark (Ark.) with Overman, Depew with McEnery, Frye with Gorman, Kittredge with Platt, Warren with Money.

MINOR AMENDMENTS.

A number of minor amendments, relating to the land laws, terms of the courts, etc., were accepted by the committee and the Senate. Several additions strengthening prohibition provisions were also submitted, all of them being confined to Indian Territory, or former or present Indian reservations.

POLYGAMY IN ARIZONA.

Mr. Dubois's amendment, relative to polygamy in the proposed State of Arizona, was then offered. He asked for the ayes and noes, but a formal vote was prevented by the committee accepting the provision. It was, therefore, incorporated in the bill.

BURROWS BEATEN.

The next formal vote was taken on Mr. Burrows's motion to strike out all the bill relating to Arizona and New Mexico. The roll call resulted in the loss of the motion by the narrow margin of one vote, 35 yeas to 36 nays. Mr. Burrows gave notice that he would renew the amendment when the bill was reported to the Senate.

WINS IN THE SENATE.

The proceedings up to this time had been in committee of the whole. When the bill was reported to the Senate, Mr. Burrows renewed his motion to strike out that part of the bill relating to Arizona and New Mexico, and this time it prevailed by the vote of 37 to 35, as follows:

Yeas—Senators Alger, Bacon, Blackburn, Bulkley, Burrows, Carter, Clark of Montana, Clay, Culberson, Daniel, Dubois, Flint, Foraker, Foster, Frasier, Gallinger, Gearin, Handsbrough, Heyburn, Latimer, McCreary, Mallory, Martin, Morgan, Newlands, Overman, Patterson, Perkins, Pettus, Rayner, Scott, Simmons, Spooner, Stone, Taliaferro, Teller, Tillman—37.

Nays—Senators Alee, Allison, Ankeny, Beveridge, Brandgee, Burnham, Clapp, Clark of Wyoming, Crane, Cullom, Dick, Dillingham, Dolliver, Dryden, Fulton, Gamble, Hale, Hemenway, Hopkins, Kean, Knox, La Follette, Lodge, Long, McCumber, Millard, Nelson, Nixon, Penrose, Piles, Proctor, Smoot, Sutherland, Warner, Wetmore—35.

SCOTT AND CLARK CHANGE.

The changes from the first vote were Scott, who voted aye, and Overman, who transferred his pair with Clark of Arkansas, to Carmack and voted in the affirmative.

The bill, as amended, was then passed by unanimous vote.

Immediately afterward, Mr. Tillman was recognized, and on his motion, the House Railroad Rate Bill was made the unfinished business.

The Senate, then, at, 5:38 o'clock p.m., went into executive session, and at 5:42 p.m., adjourned until Monday.

HOUSE PROCEEDINGS.

INDIANS AND PENSION BILLS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, March 9. — The House today passed 408 private pension bills and devoted three hours to consideration of a bill providing a uniform system of naturalization, the chief features of which are requiring an alien to write either his own or the English language, and to speak and read the latter and to declare his intention to reside permanently in the United States before he can become an American citizen. The bill is to be the continuing order when appropriation bills are not under consideration. It met many objections and will prove a fruitful topic of discussion. Mr. Bonynge of Colorado is in charge of the measure, and occupied the time in explaining its provisions and answering objections.

Opposition to the educational requirement in the bill developed in many quarters as Mr. Bonynge proceeded. At 5 o'clock, before he had concluded, the committee abandoned further consideration of the measure for the day.

A bill was passed authorizing the Zeebulon Montgomery Pike Monument Association to issue souvenir medallions in aid of securing an adequate celebration of the 100th anniversary of the Southwest expedition of Lieut. Pike to the Upper Arkansas Valley, to be held in the vicinity of Pike's Peak in 1906.

The House passed a bill having been called up by Mr. Burke of South Dakota, amending the Indian allotment laws so as to obviate the effect of the recent decision of the Supreme Court in the Huff case, where it was held that, as soon as an Indian entered on land and became a citizen, persons selling him liquor could not be prosecuted.

At 5:05 o'clock, the House adjourned until Monday.

MEETING PRESIDENT'S VIEWS.

COAL AND OIL INQUIRY.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, March 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Legislation supplementary to the recent enactment making it the duty of the Interstate Commerce Commission to investigate the coal and oil industries and allied railroads was brought forward today in the House. Representative Gillespie of Texas introduced a bill and Representative Townsend of Michigan introduced a resolution intended to meet the President's criticism of the Gillespie-Tillman resolutions.

TOWNSEND RESOLUTION.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, March 9.—Mr. Townsend's resolution provides an appropriation of $50,000 to carry on the investigation, and the Gillespie bill makes an appropriation of $100,000 for the same purpose. The Townsend resolution provides that the Interstate Commerce Commission shall have, under the Tillman-Gillespie resolution, all the powers to subpoena witnesses, to compel them to testify and to produce documentary evidence which it enjoys under the Interstate Commerce Act. It also provides that witnesses shall enjoy the same rights and immunities in this investigation that they enjoy under the Interstate Commerce Act. Similar provisions are made in the Gillespie bill.

Under the Gillespie bill the Interstate Commerce Commission is permitted to avoid the duplication of the investigations by the adoption of findings of any other department of the government which have investigated any particular matter coming under the scope of the inquiry.

In explanation of his bill, and in reply to objections offered by the President to the Tillman resolution, Mr. Gillespie said today: "I am glad the President signed the resolution and that the same has become a law, although in doing so he sent a message to Congress that will, I fear, defeat the quick results that otherwise might have been reached by the commission in the investigation which the resolution provides. His message conveys to the guilty parties a doubt as to its power to compel the production of books and papers. Of course they will take advantage of this doubt and urge it against every step the commission may take."

Of the President's objection that, if the investigation were carried on to the full extent of its provisions it might cause immunity from punishment to those guilty of the unlawful conspiracy. Mr. Gillespie said: "I must say that I did not think any of these high criminals are trembling in their boots from fear of imprisonment as things are now, and if all of them should escape imprisonment by rushing to the commission and unbosoming themselves, we would see just as many frenzied financiers in jail as if no investigation had been held. Beside, we ought to give the commission the benefit of the doubt on the question that they, as officials of the government, are interested in the enforcement of the criminal laws, and that they would not willingly take any step that would turn a criminal loose without such was necessary to get the truth. The truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, is what Congress and the country demands of this investigation."

ROGERS AND ARCHBOLD.

THEIR VISIT EXPLAINED.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, March 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] One theory advanced in connection with the visit of H. H. Rogers and John D. Archbold to the White House, last night, is that they wished to discuss a proposition for giving certain information to the Bureau of Corporations. The Supreme Court of Missouri is expected soon to hand down a decision holding that the Standard Oil officers must answer the questions propounded by Atty.-Gen. Hadley, in connection with the investigation of the company's affairs.

ARIZONA REJOICING AT SENATE'S ACTION.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PHOENIX (Ariz.) March 9—Arizona rejoices, today, in the action of the United States Senate in passing the Foraker and Burrows amendments to the Statehood Bill. Only a very small coterie, numbering perhaps 5 per cent. of the people, hoped to see the jointure of Arizona and New Mexico.

In Phoenix, the celebrating began early in the afternoon. Powder was burned by private jubilee parties, [illegible] satisfaction had streets congratulating each other and singing the praise of the statesmen who participated in saving Arizona.

Wife Got His Money, He Vows, and Levanted.

She Declares He Told Big Fib About His Age.

"Marriage is a failure, my wife has left me and I'm going back to Denver to have her arrested. Oh, she is an awful woman."

Thus spoke Henry Jenkins yesterday afternoon of his wife, who, he declares, has left him for a man named Ingraham, a butcher at No. 628 Agatha street.

MRS. SARAH JENKINS,
who deserted the husband she married on two days' acquaintance, taking all his money and every stick of furniture in the house, and came to Los Angeles.

"I don't want her any more," continued Jenkins, "all I want is my money and then she can go. She is living with that fellow Ingraham and he threatened to kill me if I came around the place."

Jenkins says his wife left him about three months ago. He claims to have seen her drinking in a saloon with another man shortly after her marriage. The couple were married in Denver on June 19. When they broke up housekeeping, Jenkins says his wife sold the effects and took the money as well as $303, which he says he gave her. In order to get some of his money back, the husband has attached a music box, owned by his wife. The box is worth about $400, and is in a saloon in Denver conducted by two sons of Mrs. Jenkins.

Mrs. Jenkins was found at No. 628½ Agatha street yesterday afternoon. This is the home of butcher Ingraham. The woman occupies rooms above the shop. She was greatly agitated and said she feared her husband would do something desperate. She says her husband has haunted the neighborhood and has told vile tales about her to the neighbors.

INGRAHAM'S FREEDOM.

While Mrs. Jenkins was telling her story, butcher Ingraham ran up the stairs and without knocking, entered the room. The man was white with rage and said:

"I've had enough of this. I can't have everybody coming up to see Mrs. Jenkins. She has rented these rooms from me and I will protect her. I won't stand for this and I mean what I say."

Mrs. Jenkins explained her presence in the apartments of Ingraham by stating he was a friend of her family. She said he has employed her at a salary of $25 a month to look after the rooms. She declares he is "a nice man."

According to her story, Ingraham told her he had been appointed a special policeman and he intimated to her that he would "blow the head off her husband if there was any more trouble."

Ingraham seems to think a great deal of Mrs. Jenkins.

The butcher contradicted the story of Mrs. Jenkins by saying he has known the woman for three months, or since her sojourn in this city. He denied having stolen the affections of the wife of Jenkins and said he was only employing the woman for so much per month. He could not show a policeman's star and said that story was only a joke.

"I have complained to the police about that old man Jenkins," said Ingraham, "and if they do not take care of him I will take the law into my own hands and it will go hard with the old rascal."

TOOK HER IN, SHE SAYS.

"I was taken in by that man," said Mrs. Jenkins, speaking of her husband. "He told me he had a fine ranch and that he owned a hotel. He is a liar and I hate him. He told me he was 58 when I married him. I found out from his daughter that he is 72. He is too old for me and if he takes the train tomorrow for Denver I hope the cars will kill him."

After expressing this loving wish concerning her spouse, the woman's eyes flashed as she said: "That man has taken everything I had. He even sold my furniture and turned me out of the house. He has treated me vilely. I was a widow for ten years and then I married a brute. He will never get me to go back to him."

The woman declares her husband comes from a "tough family." She says one of his sons burned a store in Denver and secured a large amount of insurance.

She explains her presence in a saloon by saying her two sons conduct a drinking-house in Denver. These boys, according to Mrs. Jenkins's statement, have used $9000 of her money in fitting up a saloon. Another son, G. W. Moore, she says, is superintendent of public instruction of the Island of Porto Rico. She has two daughters.

The woman says she married Jenkins after an acquaintance of only two days. She declares he talked smoothly to her and so worked upon her sympathies that she decided to care for the lonely old man. As soon as she was married she declared her husband abused her.

Jenkins is a Grand Army man. He says he will swear out a complaint against Ingraham, charging the butcher with adultery. He expects to leave for Denver this morning. Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins lived together for six months after their marriage.

GUN AND KNIFE; WANTED LIFE.

REDLANDS MAN GOES ON SAVAGE WARPATH.

Makes Attack on Prof. G. A. Young, and, Although the Latter is Small in Stature, He Disarms His Irate Assailant and Sends Him Home, Meek and Helpless.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

REDLANDS, March 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A. A. Collier appeared at the Lugonia School during the noon hour today brandishing a loaded gun and an ugly knife. He threatened the life of his son-in-law, Prof. G. A. Young, who is principal of the school, and who, Collier claims, insists on leaving his wife alone, when she is too ill to care for herself.

Athough Collier is a big man and Young is small, he succeeded in getting both gun and knife away from Collier and finally sending him home.

Two hundred children were rendered frantic by his flourishing of arms and dire threats. Both families are prominent and there was a desperate attempt to keep the matter quiet. There will probably be an arrest tomorrow.

CRIME BRIEFS.

Land Fraud Indictments Quashed.

TOPEKA, March 9.—Judge Phillips of the United States District Court today quashed the indictments against State Senator Fred Dumont Smith, Roscoe Wilson and T. E. Ryan, charged with land frauds in Kansas.

Grand Jury Considers Mann Case.

NEW YORK, March 9.—Consideration of the charge of perjury against Col. William D. Mann, editor of Town Topics, was begun by the grand jury today. The charge grew out of the recent trial of Norman Hapgood for criminal libel.

Contractor Lured Away and Robbed.

KANSAS CITY (Mo.) March 9.—E. G. Meegan, a railroad contractor of Camden, Mo., was lured to a secluded spot in the woods near Rosedale and robbed of $5000, today, by three men. C. C. Miller of Oklahoma City was arrested for complicity in the crime. Meegan himself captured Miller. In Miller's pockets was found $2900.

The New "Bottle" Shoulders
"Ready-and-Right"
Shoulders that set, not too square, but just the right slope and mould—those are the new "bottle" shoulders.
There's simply no use trying to find these shoulders in clothing made by machinery.
In fact, we'd be willing to wager that outside of the new Silverwood suits you could seek through every nook and corner of the city without finding them.
They give a fine air to a suit which is too attractive for any man to pass by.
That's just one detail that distinguishes "Ready-and-Right" suits.
Fifteen to Forty is the price range.

WILL HELP NINTH WARD.

Improvement Association Makes Plans for Better Conditions in Boyle Heights.

Last evening the Ninth Ward Improvement Association was organized at A.O.U.W. Hall, at First and St. Louis streets. There are 114 enrolled on the books, and much enthusiasm was manifested over the work contemplated.

The plan of the association embraces the betterment of Boyle Heights surroundings, the proper disposal of garbage, and the improvement of streets and alleys.

The impassable condition of First street makes paving absolutely necessary, and this will be attended to at an early date, and the jog at Chicago street is to be straightened out.

The officers elected were: President, George Lyons; vice-president, Dr. L. D. Swartout; secretary, W. J. Bryant; assistant secretary and treasurer, O. W. Seymour.

The Committee on Organization embraced George Lyons, Myers White, E. L. Blanchard, W. H. Workman and Dr. Campbell.

At the second meeting of the association, which will take place March 23, important improvements will be formulated, and actual work begun immediately thereafter.

Pains in My Back

Mrs. A. W. Switzer, of Toronto, Can., who suffered intensely from inflammation of the kidneys and bladder, cured by Warner's Safe Cure.

A trial bottle of Warner's Safe Cure, the great kidney and bladder cure, sent ABSOLUTELY FREE to every reader of The Times who suffers from kidney, liver, bladder or blood disease.

It Was My Kidneys

Thousands of men and women have kidney disease and do not know it until it is too late.

MRS. A. W. SWITZER

In a letter telling of her remarkable cure, Mrs. Switzer said:

"In January, 1904, I was taken down with inflammation of the kidneys and bladder, and was laid up in bed for eight weeks. I had very severe pains across the back and kidneys and in the legs. I also had a terrible burning sensation in the affected parts. The doctor could not aid me. He told me frankly he thought there was no hope, andn that I could not be cured. He proposed an operation, but I remembered reading of the remarkable cures credited to Warner's Safe Cure, and sent out for a bottle. I soon began to recover my former good health. Today I am on the fourth bottle and am now as strong as before I was taken sick. My cure is complete, and I fully believe Warner's Safe Cure saved my life. I cannot say too much in its favor, and gladly make this statement that others may know and be benefited."—MRS. A. W. SWITZER, 42 Wyatt avenue, Toronto, Canada.

Warner's Safe Cure

Does your back ache? Do you have scalding pains? Are you troubled with vital weakness? If the answer is "Yes," your kidneys are diseased and your life is in danger. Warner's Safe Cure is the medicine that will help you. Thousands of wonderful cures attest its merit, and thousands of people voluntarily commend its use as the best cure and sure preventive of all forms of kidney and bladder trouble, female weakness, Bright's disease and all diseased conditions of the liver and blood.

IF IN DOUBT MAKE THIS TEST

Put some urine in a glass; after it stands twenty-four hours, if you find a reddish, brick-dust sediment in it, or particles floating in the urine, or the urine is milky or cloudy, you will know your kidneys are in a diseased condition and are unable to perform their work; the result will be the bladder and urinary organs will become inflamed, uric acid will poison the blood, the stomach will become affected and unable to digest the food, the system will become weak, and the result will be a breakdown of the general health, with Bright's disease or diabetes, which will prove fatal if not treated with promptness and great care.

Warner's Safe Pills taken with Warner's Safe Sure moves the bowels gently and aid a speedy cure. WARNER'S SAFE CURE is now put up in two sizes, and is sold by all druggists, or direct, at 50 cents and $1.00 a bottle. Refuse substitutes containing harmful drugs, which injure the system.

Trial Bottle Free To convince every sufferer from diseases of the kidneys, liver, bladder and blood that WARNER'S SAFE CURE will cure them, a trial bottle will be sent, ABSOLUTELY FREE, postpaid, to any one who will write WARNER'S SAFE CURE CO., Rochester, N. Y., and mention having seen this liberal offer in the LOS ANGELES TIMES. The genuineness of this offer is fully guaranteed. Our doctors will also send medical booklet containing descriptions of symptoms and treatment of each disease, and many convincing testimonials free to every one.

BUY WHERE THE AIR IS THE PURE OZONE FROM OFF THE HEALTH RESTORING WATERS OF THE PACIFIC.

Buy where the soil is rich and injurious frosts never prevail.

Buy around Redondo, where there are three electric lines and one steam railroad, and there will soon be another electric line.

Buy where the purest of water, from the large water works now on the Tract, can be had for only 7½ cents per thousand gallons.

Buy where you will make large profits.

Buy at the opening sale, which, as has been history, invariably insures a great profit. If you can't call at the office at once—then telephone (Main 3379 or Home 5339), telegraph or write at once, and a beautiful illustrated prospectus, map and sample contract will be mailed to you absolutely free.

Office open every night during week days from 7 to 9 o'clock to accommodate those who cannot come during the day.

DON'T SEND MONEY—SIMPLY WRITE.

CUT THIS OUT AND MAIL.

Notice to Paving Contractors.

Sealed proposals addressed to the City Engineer of El Paso, Texas, will be received until 5 o'clock p.m. Wednesday, March 28, 1906, for furnishing material for labor and paving all streets and parts of streets in "Improvement District No. 1" in El Paso, Texas. Bids will be received on sheet asphalt, rock asphalt, vitrified brick, bithulithic, or a combination of these materials. The surface to be covered is approximately 90,000 square yards and the material to be used will be selected by the city after the bids are opened. Specifications can be had by applying to this office on and after March 15, 1906. A certified check for $500, payable to Charles Davis, Mayor, must accompany each proposal as an evidence of good faith of the bidder. The city reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

OLD HALL FOR NEW PURPOSE.

REDONDO CHAUTAUQUA TEMPLE TO BE HIGH SCHOOL.

Large Building, Used but One Season, Will Be Remodeled at Cost of Eighteen Thousand Dollars and Used to Advantage Under the New Arrangement.

The union high school district composed of Redondo Beach and Hermosa Beach is to have a beautiful and commodious building for its students by the next school year. The new educational plant will represent an outlay of fully $25,000, bonds for which were voted at a recent election.

The structure is to come out of the remodeling of the old Chautauqua Assembly Hall, which has stood for years a sort of white elephant on the hands of its owners. At last it is to be utilized to advantage.

Through a fortunate deal the union high school district has come into possession of the Assembly Hall and the five-acre tract on which it stands. The tract is set with well-grown trees and shrubbery, and has a gentle slope to the westward. It is one of the most commanding sites in Redondo Beach.

Plans for the reconstruction have been completed by Pemberton & Kent, engineers and architects of Redondo and Los Angeles. The Times this morning presents the view of the building as it will appear when completed. Contracts for the work will be awarded next month.

The original building was erected fifteen years ago by the Redondo Chautauqua Association. It cost between $10,000 and $15,000—and but one Chautauqua season was ever given there.

After various changes of ownership the Assembly Hall at last passed into the hands of the Huntington interests, and from this ownership it was secured by the union high school district for only $8000. The school trustees have been patting themselves on the back ever since, for it was a grand bargain.

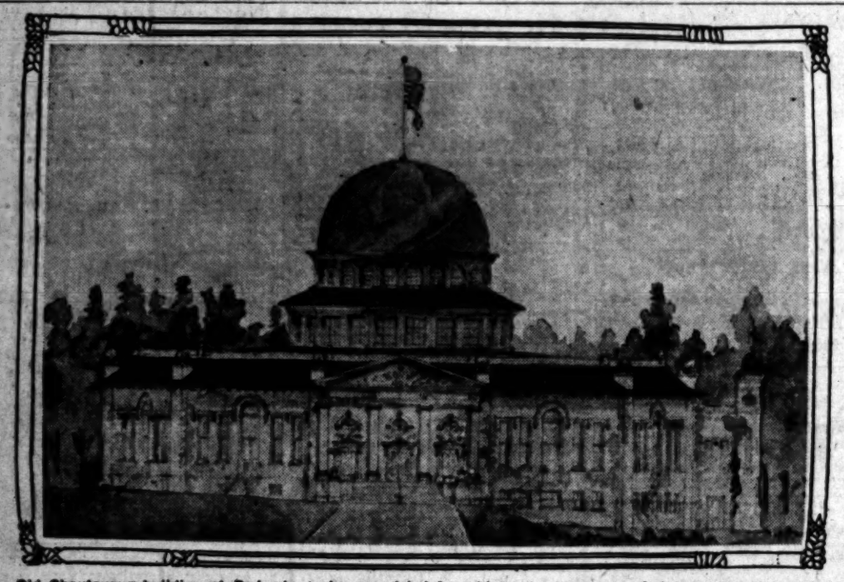
The building is eleven-sided, and its walls are concrete. These walls are to be freshly plastered and tinted. The wooden roofs are to be replaced by red tile roofing, and the dome is to be lighted by a series of two windows in each bay—a total of forty-four windows.

Two pedimented entrances, at the north and south sides, will give a fine effect, and over the west entrance will rise a graceful belfry. The general structure will be of classical design.

The interior will have many changes over the present form. There will be eight class rooms, extending around the sides of the building. These will be 25x26 feet. A library, 24x18 feet will occupy a side section, and the principal's room will have a place next the main entrance.

The center of the structure, that portion which is now the main auditorium, will be converted into a general study room and assembly room. This will have seating capacity for 600 persons, and at the west end will be a stage, 25x26 feet, with dressing rooms, etc. The dome will rise over this general study room. It is thirty-five feet in diameter, and forty-five feet high. Its supports are cantilever trusses. Locker rooms are provided on the sides of the main entrance, and there will be two large rooms in the basement.

The union high school is in its first year of existence, and it now occupies rooms in the City Hall. Two teachers are employed. It is expected that with the added facilities and equipment of the new building there will be a largely increased enrollment next year, and several more teachers will be necessary.



Old Chautauqua building at Redondo, to be remodeled for a high school at a cost of eighteen thousand dollars.

CITY-COUNTY CONSOLIDATION.

Joint Commission Organized and Ready for Business—Fleming is Made Permanent Secretary.

A business meeting of the City and County Consolidation Commission was held last evening in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce. Chairman S. A. Butler presided, and only one member was absent. A. P. Fleming was elected permanent secretary of the commission.

The committee on ways and means reported that the city and the county had appropriated $200 a month each to defray the expenses of the commission, and that active work could be begun at once. Resolutions thanking the Council and the supervisors for their action, and appreciating their public-spirited interest in the work delegated to the commission, were adopted.

The commission will establish offices in the Chamber of Commerce building immediately, and the secretary will collect data from all parts of the country to assist the commission in formulating plans and preparing a report on city and county consolidation. The various subcommittees are at work and will report from time to time to the main body, and a campaign of public education will be inaugurated as soon as practicable.

It is the declared policy of the commission to take the public into its confidence and promote popular discussion of the project in all its phases. Meetings will be open, and the secretary will be in his office at all times to give and receive information. The commission realizes that it has an intricate problem to solve, and will need all the help it can get from the citizens of Los Angeles county in working out the details.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown of London have arrived in Paris from England and have recognized the body of Ethel A. Brown, found recently in the Seine, as their daughter, erroneously supposed to be an American girl.

NO JOBS, MONEY BACK.

Cannon and Smith, After Complaining to Police, Have Fees Returned. Hasty, Says Crowley.

E. H. Crowley, proprietor of Crowley's Labor Agency, called at The Times office yesterday and disclaimed intent of wrongdoing in the cases of Louis Smith and George Cannon, the men who reported to the police that they had been buncoed out of $6.40 each by the employment agency officials.

The men were promised positions with the firm of Miller & Peasley at Yuma, Ariz., and on Thursday went to the depot expecting transportation. They were turned away and went to the agency in wrath at what they believed to be the underhanded work of Crowley.

According to the statement of Crowley the men were hasty and became excited without cause. This is Crowley's statement:

"Smith and Cannon were promised transportation to Yuma provided we could secure five men. We offered to refund their money in case of failure to secure the number, and yesterday morning the men got their money back. They acted in a hasty manner, and we did not intend to defraud them of a cent. I think the matter will be dropped so far as the police are concerned, as we have done everything possible to square the case."

THIS IS OAK LAWN

The picture shows a private boulevard in Oaklawn, the "prettiest spot in the scenic Pasadenas."

Oaklawn is the highest character of property that is on the market today at comparatively low prices.

From a home or speculative standpoint Oaklawn has exceptional merit.

With its wealth of live oaks, palms, orange trees and decorative shrubbery, its costly street improvements, picturesque environment, stately homes and perfect car service—Oaklawn challenges comparison.

It has no rivals—it stands alone—distinctive, different, unique.

Oaklawn is 25 minutes from Los Angeles—5 minutes from hub of Pasadena—adjoins Raymond Hotel grounds—surrounded by palatial residences—delightful views of valley and mountains.

If you want the best that Southern California can offer—if you want the most desirable residential elements concentrated in one spot—if you want them at a price that will appeal to your "sense of values"—BUY AT OAKLAWN.

We Cure Weak Men FOR $12.50

Our method completely and permanently revives power after "cure-all" remedies and "quick cure" specialists fail even to benefit.

Our scientific, systematic course of treatment for weak, nervous, broken down youths and men, who have, through folly, dissipation and excesses, unfitted themselves for work and the enjoyment of life, is a system that has been tested many times over and proven entirely satisfactory. It is totally different from the many sickening pills and tablets and the stimulating, stomach-ruining drugs given by would-be specialists. Our specific treatment for all the symptoms indicating Failing Strength is harmless, though so effective as to remove them immediately. It is constitutional; therefore, by purifying the blood, strengthening the nervous system, nourishing the tissues, the patient becomes strong and healthy, with all signs of the trouble forever gone. This treatment is to the human system what the sap is to the tree—it puts energy, ambition and confidence that leaf into a prime, healthy, manly feeling of new life.

WE CHARGE FOR CURES ONLY. We do not expect pay for our services unless we cure a patient sound and well, so that he will be entirely satisfied, and will never again have to be treated for the same trouble. Our patients receive a written agreement to this effect, which assures them against any possibility of loss should we fail to cure. WE WANT PAY FOR SUCCESS AND NOTHING FOR FAILURES. INVESTIGATE AND LEARN THAT OUR WORD IS AS GOOD AS OUR BOND, OUR FINANCIAL STANDING IS SOLID, AND THAT OUR LONG EXPERIENCE IN TREATING SPECIAL DISEASES OF MEN INSURES YOU OF MODERN, SCIENTIFIC TREATMENT THAT WILL ACCOMPLISH DESIRABLE RESULTS IN ALL CURABLE CASES.

Consultation Free, Confidential and Invited. A personal, thorough and searching examination is required. Write for information. Terms are always made to suit the convenience of anyone applying for treatment, and very reasonable charges. Do not treat elsewhere until you have investigated our methods and terms. Office hours during the week, 8 A.M. to 8 P.M.; Sundays, 9 to 1.

MEN

OUR POSITION

We have no department store prices to advertise in our work. Our charges are the lowest possible for thorough, expert treatment. We have never known of an able physician who advertised a certain price for curing any disease. When a patient comes to us we cheerfully give him a FREE consultation and give him our prices for an absolute cure, which will be as reasonable as an honest, able doctor can do. We furnish all medicine free. We have been here 12 years, and we feel that any man needing work in our specialty should see us.

All ailing men should consult none but the best. Men of mediocre ability and little experience are many and easily found—but should not be consulted. DR. HARRISON'S qualifications are ability, experience and reliability.

Stricture

Pain is entirely eliminated under our treatment we have solely developed and perfected for the cure of stricture, thus doing away with the use of a knife, and leaves the urinary passage in a healthy condition, doing away with all irritation and congestion of the kidneys and bladder.

Chronic Troubles

Of men are treated by thorough, scientific and skillful methods that result happily in curable cases. There is no guessing, no experimenting; our work is based on a thorough knowledge of our business.

Contracted Disorders

Every curable case is given thorough and reliable treatment; when we pronounce a patient cured, he may be assured that there is not a particle of infection or inflammation remaining and there is not the slightest danger that the disease will return in its original form or affect the general system.

Varicocele

Varicocele cannot be cured by absorption, electric belts, external application or internal remedy; but Varicocele can be cured by Dr. Harrison's method, which is absolutely guaranteed by a written contract to cure the Varicocele or no pay. Do not pay a dollar for a cure of Varicocele unless you have that kind of a contract. Call and interview Dr. Harrison; he will gladly explain his method and refer you to many prominent men he has cured.

Our Medical Journal Free

Downstairs at our entrance, 232½ South Broadway, you can help yourself to our medical journal; an extensive description of our special work is given. It contains full information, which we cannot publish in our advertisement. If you live out of the city, write for one.

Weakness

This trouble—the bane of men of all ages—we treat successfully in curable cases. Our treatment is direct, effective and relief sure to follow. We take pleasure in making clear to every man who calls for consultation the cause, the course and the outcome of his particular case. There is no charge for consultation.

Legitimate Specialists

FREQUENTLY THERE IS A MISapprehension as to the cost of the services of a competent specialist. Some sufferers are inclined to think that because of the complete cures we make our fees are exorbitant. They are not. They are simply FAIR, and usually worth five times what we ask. Before you try "cheap" treatments, it will be to your interest to consult us. That will cost you nothing. If you follow this advice you will SAVE money. If you try "cheap" treatment you will WASTE money.

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Gets Twenty Days.-

Frank Nirski was convicted yesterday in the Police Court on a charge of disturbing the peace and sentenced to serve twenty days in the City Jail by Justice Rose.

Check for Firemen.

The H. Raphael Company yesterday sent to the Fire Commission a check for $100 in recognition of the "excellent work of the fire department in stopping what promised to be a most disastrous fire at our store on the night of February 18."

Monrovia Wins.

The Monrovia High Schol debating team vanquished the Los Angeles High School team last night in joint debate in the Monrovia school. The question was: "Resolved, that the popular election of United States Senators would not be for the best interests of the nation." The Monrovia team had the affirmative.

Seeks Husband.

Mrs. I. Jacobs appealed to the police yesterday for aid in locating her husband, who mysteriously disappeared and left her without money to care for four small children. The woman has been making her home at No. 443 Crocker street, where her husband was to join her after an absence of some time in Pueblo, Colo. She fears he has met with foul play.

Boy in Trouble.

Carl Anderson, aged 19, was arraigned yesterday before Justice Rose on a charge of having improper relations with Cecelia Gross, who is but 14 years old. Anderson was held under $2000 bonds for examination next Monday morning. The charge is a technical one, but none the less serious for the boy.

Driver's Leg Broken.

C. B. Thorp, driver for the Merchants' Ice Company, was thrown from his wagon in a runaway accident on Central avenue, near Ninth street, yesterday afternoon, and sustained a fractured leg. His team became frightened and dashed down the street, hurling him out. Thorp struck on his right leg in such a manner as to fracture it below the knee. He was taken to the Receiving Hospital.

Arm Ground Off.

John Lafferty of No. 5815 Banner street lost his right arm yesterday afternoon as a result of an accident in the shoddy factory at No. 2148 Sacramento street, where he was employed. He caught his hand in a shredding machine and his arm as far up as the elbow was ground to pulp. He was hurried to the Receiving Hospital and the injured arm amputated by the police surgeons. Later he was removed to his home.

Forfeits His Bail.

Jim Heed, charged with vagrancy, failed to appear when his case was called in Justice Chambers's court yesterday and his bail of $100 was declared forfeited. Reed's case is a particularly aggravating one and strange as it may seem to those on the outside this "vag" had no trouble in raising the $100 bail money. Next time he will get no bail, however, and a bench warrant was issued for his arrest yesterday.

Mr. Towell Dangerously Ill.

James F. Towell, a well-known and aged resident who lives at No. 2217 South Figueroa street, is dangerously ill, and since he is eighty years old grave fears are entertained for his recovery. A short time ago he suffered a stroke of paralysis, and Dr. W. Jarvis Barlow, who is his physician, finds that he fails to rally. Late last evening it was stated by attendants that he was perfectly conscious and suffering no pain, but that his vital forces were at very low ebb.

Frightful Burns Bring Death.

While painting an engine in the Southern Pacific shops yesterday morning Jacob Nicholls, a painter, was so severely injured by the explosion of a mixture containing gasoline that he died in the Sisters' Hospital last evening. He was frightfully burned, and was removed at once to the hospital, where he lingered between life and death throughout the afternoon. Nicholls was 29 years of age and lived with his family at No. 854 Alliso street. The remains were removed to Bresee Bros.' morgue.

Auto Speeder in Toils.

Stewart Manpin, chauffeur for W. G. Brown, who is spending the winter at the Hotel Green in Pasadena, was arrested yesterday and convicted before Justice Rose of violating the speed law. The justice fined him $15 or fifteen days, and then remitted the fine during good behavior, at the same time telling Manpin plainly that if he should be convicted again he would have to pay $85 instead of $50, which is the usual second offense fine. Manpin was a stranger in this section and the justice did not believe he should be too severely dealt with.

BREVITIES.

Parties having $100 or more to invest will do well to call on the Southwestern Securities Company, 502 H. W. Hellman Building, fiscal agents for the Mesa Grande Tourmaline and Gem Company. This enterprise offers an exceptional opportunity for the profitable investment of capital. Call and see the splendid display of tourmalines.

The Folly of the Flatiron
You can press shape into suits. But you can't press permanence into the shape. That has to be sewn in. Worth has to be worked into a suit just the same as it has to be worked into anything else.
The swagger shape of a Brauer-Krohn suit is the child of the needle—not that of the flatiron. It's something that's there to stay. The fabric will wear out. That's why there is a certain something of distinguished style about a Brauer-Krohn Suit, even when it is three or four years old.

LOSES LETTER, CHARGES PLOT.

Poison Mystery is Alleged in Missing Missive.

Woman Says It Aims at Her Old Father's Mind.

Relatives Hint Contents Allude to Stomach.

This is a drama of a stolen letter. Were not the heroine a hopelessly modern young woman with red posies in her hat, and of the unromantic name Henry Miller, the step-brother of Mrs. Price. When Henry Miller got on the witness-stand, he said he had given the letter to his wife. He didn't know what she did with it.

Finally, the old man himself, Jacob Miller, was called to the stand. He looked puzzled and troubled.

"Didn't they use the contests of this letter to make you think that Mr. and Mrs. Price were going to poison you?" was the first startling question asked him.

The court would not allow the question to be answered.

"Isn't it true that Mr. Davis talked the letter over with you?" he asked.

He said it was not true.

Claude Davis, defendant's son, who had placed the letter in the strong box

Principals in the queer case of the purloined letter. At the top is Mrs. Jennie Price, who seeks to recover her letter. In the center is Jacob Miller, her father, whose mind, she says, is being poisoned against her. Below is Jessie Davis, who is believed by Mrs. Price to have the letter.

of Jennie Price, it might well be a "costume drama" of ancient France—with cardinals and things.

It is properly a case for a swashbuckler with a long sword to rush around sticking holes in folks to recover the fatal letter from the hands of the lady's enemies.

Lacking a swordsman, she had to appeal to Justice Pierce yesterday to get back the stolen epistle for her.

Upon its prompt recovery depends her happiness and fortune.

Her enemies, she claims, are using it to poison her old father's mind against her in order that her step-brother and step-sister may rob her of her inheritance.

They tell him that the letter shows she is plotting to poison him.

Justice Pierce says it is the most peculiar case he has seen in court during the forty years of his experience.

To the woman's utter despair, the stolen letter could not be found. All her step-relatives were called to the witness stand and asked under oath where the letter has gone. They grinned and answered so evasively that she knows less now than she did before.

Poor old Jacob Miller, her father, sat sorrowfully in court and heard his children lambasting each other; probably wishing they would let him die before they began fighting over his fortune.

Miller is an old man with a lot of money, who came here from Illinois. He has three children, two by his first wife and one daughter of a second marriage.

CHILDREN'S BITTER STRIFE.

Bitter are the feelings between the first and the second crop of children.

Mrs. Jennie Price, the plaintiff in this peculiar suit, is the daughter of the second marriage.

At the earnest solicitation of her father, she came here from Colorado Springs, where her husband is employed, in order that all the children might be with the old man in the declining years of his life.

During the period of separation, her husband got an unhappy inspiration to write this fatal letter to her here. In it he suggested buying two cemetery lots at Rosedale, and suggested that she ask the old man about the disposal of his property.

It was evidently a well-enough meaning letter, but there were things in it which might be evilly construed. The other children said it was a threat of poison.

Mrs. Price says that her little niece, Selma Bennett, the old man's grandchild, was sent to her house to spy around, and that she saw this letter; then that she was sent back to steal it.

Knowing the construction that might be placed upon it to influence her father's will, Mrs. Price was frantic to find it missing. All else failing, she brought this lawsuit, which came to trial yesterday.

She asked that the court get back the letter for her and give her $199 damages for injured feelings.

It resulted in what lawyers call a "fishing expedition" on the part of her attorney, Luther G. Brown. But in spite of the withering examination to which he subjected the whole family, the letter was not found.

Mrs. Price went on the witness stand first, and told of the alleged conspiracy to knock her out of her father's will by means of this fatal letter.

Jesse Davis, who is said to be the executor of the old man's will, and who was the named defendant in this suit, was called to the stand.

THE VANISHING LETTER.

He said that the letter had been placed in his strong-box in the Union Trust building. Who put it there, why, or its present whereabouts could not be dragged out of him.

He would grin and say he didn't know from personal knowledge.

He said he had given the letter to and then suffered a seeming paralysis of memory, was made to testify. Nothing could be got out of him.

As the letter had evidently been passed around from one to another, Attorney Brown decided that it was degenerating into a case of "button, button, who's got the button?". He gave it up for a bad job.

A big damage suit against the step-brother and step-sister and also a criminal charge of larceny against the girl, Selma Bennett, who is alleged to have purloined the letter, are contemplated.

NO INSULT TO FLAG INTENDED.

SHOOTING GALLERY INCIDENT A BOYISH AFFAIR.

Chinese Chamber of Commerce Makes Thorough Investigation for Purpose of Bringing Offenders to Justice, but Finds That Facts Have Been Distorted.

The Chinese Chamber of Commerce, through a committee composed of George Lem, Yip Bow Yuen and Wong Fong, has thoroughly investigated the flag incident which resulted in the closing of two Japanese shooting galleries, because it was reported to those in authority that the proprietors had incited Chinese to make targets of the American flag. The committee, which is composed of three of the best-known Chinese in this part of the country, has made its report.

In a sworn statement, much too voluminous for publication in full, the committee of the Chinese Chamber of Commerce recites the various steps it took during its investigation and what it found. As to the purpose of the investigation, the report says that they entered into it "with the firm determination to bring all and every Chinese who might be guilty of desecrating the American flag before the magistrates, that the sternest punishment might be meted out to them."

The report describes the two shooting galleries, the arrangement of targets, the use of small American flags as decorations, and the fact is pointed out that some of the flags are placed near the line of fire, and may have been struck by bullets months ago. There was no "mob of Chinese" in either of the galleries on the night of the "trouble." Two Chinese boys, returning from a theater, were invited by a Japanese woman to shoot. They paid her 25 cents for 16 shots, and while they were there a white man entered and began annoying them. The Jap ordered the man out of the place, and it was this man who caused all the trouble by reporting to the police that the American flag was being used as a target. After the Chinese boys had departed, two policemen entered the shooting gallery, and without stating their business made an examination of the flags, and finding bullet holes in them immediately ordered the place closed. That ended the matter, so far as the Japanese were concerned.

FALLS FOUR STORIES.

H. Huffman, a window washer employed in the Alexandria Hotel, lost his balance while working on the fourth floor yesterday morning and fell down a light well, crashing through a skylight and finally striking on the concrete floor of the basement. He was removed to the Clara Barton Hospital. He had sustained a concussion of the brain and a fracture of the right leg. Huffman's condition is considered so serious that he may not recover.

SODA DRINKS FULL OF DOPE.

Many Rank Frauds Found in "Fruit Flavors."

Acids and Coal Tar Products for "Extracts."

Health Board and Chemist Going for Offenders.

Apropos of the hot wave, the opening charge of the populace upon the soda fountains has roused the Board of Health to action.

An effort will be made at the meeting of the board next Thursday night to stop the practice of feeding the awful dope that passes in some of the fountains for "fruit extracts."

If possible, steps will be taken to enforce more cleanliness. Some of the best fountains are said to be in a deplorable state of filth.

The City Chemist will be requested to make an examination of the flavoring extracts manufactured in the city and used at hundreds of fountains.

Soda drinkers would be surprised to know that even in this country of fruits, the fruit extracts are made, in many case, out of horrible-smelling acids.

Most of the lemon flavor never saw a lemon, and the strawberry flavor is not on speaking terms with a strawberry.

One firm in this city supplies most of the doped flavoring used. They send it out in bottles with a recipe for mixing the concoctions.

On the outside of the bottle of the strawberry flavoring, for instance, is the following direction: For fountain syrup, one to two ounces strawberry extract, one ounce soda foam, one ounce fruit acids solution, strawberry-red food-coloring to suit.

This is the epitaph on the lemon flavoring: One to two ounces extract of lemon flavoring, one ounce soda foam, two ounces fruit acid solution, light yellow food-coloring to suit.

One of the commonest recipes for lemon extract is courmarin and lemon oil colored with aniline. Vanilla extract, on the other hand is commonly made of courmarin colored with aniline, or of tonka bean colored.

Most of the so-called "food-colorings" are coal-tar products, many of them injurious.

DOPED TO THE CORK.

Much of the "soda pop" and ginger ale and pomelo is made of chemicals, doped to the cork.

The "extract" from which the flavoring is to be mixed sells for $1 a bottle, but gallons of flavoring can be made from it. Among other ingredients of the extract are sulphuric acid and nitric acid.

As a side issue, many of these firms turn out adulterated vinegar and claret made of a peculiar combination of chemicals.

Some of the soda-water fountains in this city undoubtedly have pure products of natural fruit flavoring; but they don't buy their flavors.

Even some of these good ones have fallen under the ban of the board. Recent work on some of the big ones by nickel-plate repairers showed the inside of the fountains to be filthy with decaying bits of fruit.

This agitation is regarded as particularly serious by the health office on account of the great quantity of soda water consumed. It is estimated that $45,000,000 worth was sold in the United States last year, nearly a dollar for each inhabitant.

So important an industry has it become that the Standard Oil Company is said to be dickering for control of the manufacture of bogus extract. They would be able to use many of the by-products of their petroleum in the coloring extracts.

In a feeble attempt to correct this evil, a law was passed that the stuff could not be labeled "lemon extract" unless it was extracted from lemon.

TRICK OF THE TRADE.

Calmly did the manufacturers of the dope stamp out the word "extract" and stamp in the word flavoring" in a faint red stamp.

Also in a light and very pale red stamp did they insert the word "artificial." But as the customer sees none of the bottles, it actually doesn't much matter what they put on the outside of the bottles.

Out of these bottles and out of the others containing the various acids and adulterants used, the "lemon flavor" is mixed in quantity by the wily soda water dealer into attractive-looking bottles meant to be displayed before the thirsty.

As a slight indication of the reason why dealers prefer to use false flavoring, it may be remarked that real vanilla is worth $14 a pound; fake vanilla, such as is commonly used, costs 65 cents a pound.

If he be a very polite soda-water man, he will courteously murmur "Excuse me if it kills you," before he hands you out your soda water.

Although the patent-medicine men have been stormed at with verbal shot and shell, the soda-flavoring crimes are but little known. They do not have the additional sin of being directed at sick and helpless folk.

It is doubtful what the powers of the Board of Health are in the premises. The pure-food laws are extremely hazy.

It was stated by a member of the Board of Health yesterday that the City Chemist will be asked to look into the matter of fruit flavoring and the cleanliness of the fountains.

Every effort will be made to protect the soda-drinking public before the coming of the summer rush upon the soda.

THE FLOOD OF GOLD.

Banker Hellman Lays Real Estate Activity to Yellow Metal's and Population's Increase.

Isaias W. Hellman, president of the Wells-Fargo Nevada National Bank, San Francisco, and of the Farmers' and Merchants' National Bank, Los Angeles, came into this city yesterday from San Francisco on the Owl. Mr. Hellman is interested in the organization of a new national bank at Colton, with friends of his here, and that is one of the matters which he has come to advise about. He is also watching the progress of the new building around the Farmers' and Merchants' National Bank, and incidentally making further preparations for the opening of the big trust company, which is to be housed in part of the new building. But the opening of the trust company is still months ahead.

In commenting upon the conditions prevailing in Los Angeles, particularly in real estate, Mr. Hellman recognized that there are two principal factors concerned in producing the activity and firm prices ruling in the real estate market. These factors are the great increase in population in this particular city, and the great increase in the output of gold in all parts of the world. This banker, with a national reputation in his own line of business, spoke in commendation of the financial work being done by The Times just at this particular period. He thinks the educating of the people in matters pertaining to the conducting of banks will be productive of good. He referred particularly to recent articles in the paper on the great increase in recent years in the world output of gold, as one of the chief causes in the advance of prices in real estate here as well as elsewhere.

As supplementary considerations Mr. Hellman brought out these facts. The increase in gold has not only affected real estate, but it has stimulated to a remarkable degree the expansion of all sorts of manufacturing industries and enterprises of every kind in all parts of the world. These two considerations supplement one the other. As the influx of gold into the channels of gold increases, business of all kinds very naturally expands in its scope. All the increased capital coming into the world does not seek investment in real estate, but is scattered over a great many different types of investment. A further fact which the banker emphasizes is the going on a gold basis of so many nations of the world. Japan is the last great nation to discard the antiquated base metal basis on which to place its coinage system, and so go on the more stable basis of a gold currency. Other nations just preceded Japan, leaving China practically the only great, civilized nation in the world, whose financial system rests upon a base metal basis. This has tended to absorb enormous sums of the new gold being dug year by year from the earth. For instance, the last steamer that sailed from San Francisco to the Orient carried away no less sum than $2,000,000 in new United States gold coinage, shipped by the Wells-Fargo Nevada National Bank of San Francisco to bankers in Japan. This was the second shipment made in the course of a few weeks, both being of equal amount.

So these three features in the financial situation tend to maintain the balance; the great output of gold; the amazing investment going on in real estate, and the great expansion taking place in all sorts of manufacturing industries and enterprises of every kind; and last of all, the great demand for gold to place so many nations upon the new gold basis for their currency.

MILE-A-MINUTE CARS TO BEACH.

HIGH-POWER MOTORS TO BE PUT ON REDONDO LINE.

New Route to Be Opened for Through Cars Which Will Greatly Reduce Time and Distance and Road Will Make Strong Bid for Share of Summer Business.

With the opening of the summer travel to the beaches the Redondo Railway promises to be in a position to handle all of the travel coming its way, and that with a more frequent and rapid car service than ever before in the history of the road.

Not only is it intended to put into service larger and swifter cars, but there is a plan afoot considerably to cut down the running time of the through cars by routing them by way of Broadway to Main street, thence to Fifty-fourth street, and thence by way of the new tracks of the Redondo Railway, to a connection with the present main line. This will not only afford a considerably shorter line between the two cities, but will send the Redondo cars over a less-congested city route.

It is believed, however, that the local cars will still enter and leave the city by way of Grand avenue.

The work of double-tracking the Inglewood division will be finished within a few weeks, so that the roadbed will be in excellent condition for summer business.

In the shops of the company at Redondo, ten new large high-speed motors are building. Five are already nearing completion, and will be put into service without delay. All of the new cars are equipped with four fifty-horse-power motors, just twice the motive power of the cars now in service. They will develop a high rate of speed, and can be depended upon materially to cut the running time between the two cities. As fast as the old cars can be spared from the service they are to go through the shops and be fitted each with an extra pair of motors, increasing by 100-horse-power the potential of each.

It is believed with all the cars of the Redondo line so equipped that the running time will be cut down to forty or forty-five minutes.

AFTER YEARS OF SERVICE.

C. A. Thurston of San Francisco, traveling agent of the Northwestern, has been appointed general agent in charge of passenger and freight, with headquarters in Los Angeles, to succeed W. D. Campbell, resigned.

Mr. Campbell will leave the company offices of the Northwestern April 1, after a period of twenty-six years' continuous service with that company. Eleven years of that time Mr. Campbell has spent in Los Angeles in charge of the local offices. He is resigning to give his personal attention to numerous outside interests. Among these interests is that of the Dixie Land Company, to the presidency of which Mr. Campbell was elected yesterday afternoon in a meeting of the board of directors.

MONEY FOR MEDICAL BOOKS.

Mysterious Donors Give Five Hundred Dollars for College Library.

Dr. W. Jarvis Barlow, chairman of the Library Committee of the College of Medicine of the University of Southern California, was the recipient yesterday of a check from a well-known Los Angeles gentleman and lady for $500, with a note saying to use the amount for the purchase of books for the library of the Medical College. It was accompanied by the request that the names of the donors be not made public.

The first of this week Dr. Barlow received an additional check for $100 for the purchase of books for the medical library, which was from a well-known Los Angeles merchant.

Letters have been received from several prominent eastern men, saying that when the Buena Vista-street building was complete, they would send donations of books.

The new building opposite the Medical College will be absolutely fireproof. The construction is rapidly progressing, but the moneys received for the purchase of books will be kept in a separate fund in the savings bank until the building is finished.

FIGHT ON SITE FOR ART HOME.

Women's Clubs Vote on Location Tuesday.

Protest Against Building in East Los Angeles.

Rare Treasures May Depend Upon the Outcome.

A red-hot campaign is on in this city, and the polls will close next Tuesday forenoon. A bitter fight—conducted in a most genteel and ladylike manner, of course—is in progress over the proposed site for the permanent art exhibit building.

Heart burnings most scorching, and vexations of spirit most trying, have crept into the world of clubdom, and the Artistic Temperament is stirred out of its usual calm and beautiful aplomb.

Shall the permanent art exhibit building go with the museum of the Southwest Society of the Archaeological Institute of America onto the free hills of Avenue 46—and thus provide for itself a "country home," in which to spread out its art treasures?

"No, emphatically, no," say the opponents. "Shall we vote to carry our treasures of art 'way out in the country, as it were, so that thousands of art lovers would never see them? Shall we allow this scheme to be carried through simply because those who would have it so happen to live in that part of the city, and believe it would enhance the value of their properties?

"No;" they say, "let the permanent exhibit be placed at some really accessible downtown point, where it will be convenient to all."

FINAL ACTION TUESDAY.

The important question will come up for final settlement at 10 o'clock on Tuesday morning, at the Ruskin Art Club rooms in the Blanchard block. Extra electric fans and ice coolers have been ordered for the occasion.

On that occasion, the representatives of the Ruskin Art, Friday Morning, Wednesday Morning, Ebel, Pasadena Shakespeare, and Cosmos clubs and the Woman's Parliament will formally cast their votes on the question of the Avenue 46 site.

It is said that two of the most liberal contributors to the building fund—Madame Ida Hancock and Mrs. Henry Wilson Hart—are the leaders of the faction most bitterly opposed to the site proposed.

Mrs. Hart started the subscription for the proposed art center by giving a check for $1000. Madame Hancock a few months later subscribed $10,000 to the building fund. It was tacitly understood that each of these ladies would make other gifts of much value to the permanent exhibit.

RARE TREASURES DEPEND.

It is even said that Mrs. Hart has made provision in her will that in the event of her death, her rare collection of art treasures is to pass into the custody of the city of Los Angeles until such time as there is a duly incorporated, permanent art exhibit, and that at such time the treasures would become its property.

These art collections are worth many thousands of dollars They comprise paintings and sculpture from famous old masters.

Will Los Angeles ever become the possessor of them?

NEXT TUESDAY MAY TELL.

It is said that Mrs. Hart is so bitterly opposed to the placing of the permanent exhibit at the Avenue 46 site that she would remake her will and eliminate the provisions regarding the transfer of her art collection, were the vote to be for the northern site.

Madame Hancock, so it is said, is as bitterly opposed to the site as is Mrs. Hart. Of course, the $1000 and $10,000 subscriptions of these ladies to the building project would stand, regardless of where the building might be erected; but rumor says it is most likely that both of them will withdraw entirely from the Fine Arts Building Association if their wishes in regard to site are given no consideration.

SUPPORTS THE SITE.

On the other hand, it is said that the Archaeological Institute has decided upon the site overlooking the Arroyo Seco, and that it believes the location well fitted for the class of structure which is desired. It believes that both the museum of this institute and the collection of art treasures which can be assembled in this city, should be together, and thus urges a combination on the Avenue 46 site.

The personnel of the club representatives comprising the Fine Arts Building Association is as follows:

Mrs. W. J. Washburn, Mrs. Henry Wilson Hart, Mme. Ida Hancock, Miss M. M. Fette, Mrs. R. L. Craig, Mrs. Sumner P. Hunt, Mrs. C. M. Flint, Mrs. J. W. Hendrick, Mrs. W. H. Housh, Mrs. George Jordan, Miss Carver and Mrs. Trask.

BULLET IN HIS GROIN.

Young Douglass Brown Accidentally Shoots Himself While Toying With a Big Pistol.

Douglass Brown, the eleven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Brown of No. 2701 Menlo avenue, was accidentally shot yesterday afternoon, while playing with a 38-caliber revolver. The bullet entered the groin and ranged downward, just missing the abdominal cavity. The wound is dangerous and the injured lad is in a critical condition.

The accident occurred during the progress of the field sports at the University of Southern California. The boy was using the pistol to start some minor races, in a side performance arranged by some of the smaller lads. The big revolver had snapped harmlessly twice, and the lad, disgusted, replaced the weapon in his side pocket. Hardly had the pistol dropped into the pocket before there was a loud report and the boy fell dangerously wounded. His horrified companions called for help and young Brown was taken to a drug store near by. The wound was found to be so serious that the lad was hurried to the California Hospital, where an operation failed to remove the bullet. It was thought the lead has lodged in the upper part of the thigh.

Mrs. Brown is prostrated at her home from the shock, and it was stated she was suffering greatly last night. The boy at a late hour was reported to be doing as well as possible, and it is not thought the injury will prove fatal.

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The City Assessor, Lewis, and Assistant City Attorney yesterday unearthed a clever scheme by which the city loses its tax revenue on more than a thousand pieces of urban property.

An ordinance forbidding the use of gasoline in stoves and lamps inside the fire limits was yesterday recommended to the Council by the fire board.

Monday the Council will order the first of ten auction sales at which it is proposed to sell 1000 city lots on which taxes have been delinquent for more than five years.

A night session in Judge Monroe's court yesterday brought the Reed will contest to an end—at least, in its present phase. The issue is of great importance to many residents in Pasadena and elsewhere, and on that account the case was watched with interest. The executors won.

The will of Dennis Le Duc, scion of an aristocratic French house, was filed for probate yesterday. He disinherited his only child, and left his estate to Lucile Isabel Sells, a resident of this city.

After deliberating nearly seven hours the jurors in the case in which Manager Smith of the Los Angeles branch of the California Fruit Canners' Association was charged with violating the State child-labor law, disagreed, and were discharged.

Harold Claybourne was examined yesterday on a charge of stealing a fine diamond ring, and was held for trial in the Superior Court by Justice Ross.

H. O. Young, charged with obtaining money by false pretenses in his employment agency, was declared "not guilty" yesterday by Justice Chambers in the Police Court.

E. A. Briggs, charged with embezzling $1.05 from his former employer, R. E. Dill, was discharged by Justice Chambers, and the case dropped.

AT THE CITY HALL.

FINE GRAFT OF TAX DODGERS.

ESCAPE PAYMENT BY LETTING CITY GET DEED.

Some Save Five Year's Taxes—"No Recourse," Says City Attorney. Exposure of Scheme Results in Order for Gigantic Municipal Auction Sale.

City Assessor Lewis and Assistant City Attorney Hewitt have unearthed a clever scheme by which shrewd property owners have been escaping the payment of taxes on valuable business and residence property.

One result of this discovery will be ten consecutive auction sales at which the city will offer for sale to the highest bidder 1000 city lots. One hundred pieces of property will be sold at each auction.

At the present time the city holds title to more than 1000 lots, taken for delinquent taxes. Each piece has been held for more than five years and the city has secured a deed. Under a peculiar State law the original owner of the property can redeem it at any time until the city has sold it to a third party. The tax deed received from the city is incontestable, except for flaws in proceedings.

The aggregate value of the property on which the city now holds tax deeds has been estimated at $750,000.

By a ruling of the Attorney-General the city cannot collect taxes on any of this property for the period under which the city has held the deed. It is by this ruling that the delinquent property owner wins.

Intricate as a railroad time table is the State law governing the sale of property for delinquent taxes. It is so complicated that the artful tax dodger has found a way to escape paying taxes at all, and still keeps a firm hold on his real estate.

A city official yesterday discovered that there is a business block on Broadway on which the owners have not paid taxes for ten years and on which they can escape payment of the taxes for the last five years.

This is only one instance. The fact that the city holds tax deeds to over one thousand separate pieces of property shows the extent to which the graft has been worked.

In the nondescript holdings of the city there are probably a few pieces of property that the owner has forgotten all about, in some instances where he has gone away and died—but the greater portion of it is held by the city because the tax dodger finds that there is money in it that way.

Here is the way the scheme has been worked:

Away back in 1895 when the present delinquent property tax law was adopted, a coterie of clever landowners stopped paying taxes on their urban holdings. In 1900 their property reverted to the city, the municipality receiving a tax deed therefor. The city had the right to sell that property at once, but there have been no general delinquent property tax sales for five years. Now the Attorney-General has come forward with a decision that the city cannot collect taxes from any of that property since it has been held by the municipality on a tax deed. He holds that the city cannot tax its own land and make some one else pay the bill.

And here is where the delinquent wins. He can go to the City Clerk and, by paying the taxes due for the first five years of the delinquency, receive a clear title to his property. In some instances he can escape payment of five year's taxes.

When the scheme was originated it was only for the purpose of avoiding increased assessments—the assessed valuation of property held in the city's name is not raised—but the Attorney-General's decision has made the scheme an even greater money winner than the originators thought.

It is estimated by the Assessor that the city lost last year $10,000 in revenue on property it holds on tax deeds, but which reverts to the original owner if he pays up before the land is sold at auction.

GASOLINE IS "FIRED."

PROHIBITIVE LAW PROPOSED.

The tricky gasoline stove has been ruled out by the Fire Commission for improper behavior and incendiary acts.

Yesterday the commission sent to the Council, with favorable recommendation, an ordinance prohibiting the use of gasoline in stoves and lamps inside the fire limits.

In the original draft the stove-and-lamp clause did not appear. Just as it was about to be presented to the commission a mahout discovered that the ordinance would affect automobiles, as well as portable stoves. Intense excitement prevailed until the qualifying clause was duly inserted in its proper place.

Roughly outlined, the fire limits comprise all the property in the district bounded by Alameda street on the east, Sunset boulevard on the north, Hope street and Bunker Hill avenue on the west, and Tenth street on the south.

OBJECTS TO PARADE.

TOO GREAT RISK, SAYS CHIEF.

An invitation from the Fiesta Committee to take part in the floral parade, yesterday, created a lively discussion at the Fire Board meeting.

Chief Lips objected to a parade of the fire department. He said that fires are of frequent occurrence here, and so many districts are now only partially protected. "Such a parade would be given at a great risk," he said, "greater in my opinion than the occasion would justify."

To this sentiment Commissioner Wren and Mayor McAleer subscribed; they favored an immediate answer declining to parade.

Commissioner Betkouski favored the parade; he said he is proud of the department, and that the people should have an opportunity to see the new engines and equipments. After a lively discussion the invitation was taken under advisement.

FIRE BOARD TO COUNCIL:

"NO MONEY, NO ENGINES."

Replying to a communication from the Council asking the board to equip the fire-houses at Adams and Hobart streets, and at Main and Ann streets, the Fire Board made a counter request for $1000 a month extra appropriation.

Chief Lips said that it will cost at least $1000 a month to man and equip the new houses.

"We are now $20,000 in the hole," said Commissioner Wren. "I move we grant that request on condition that the Finance Committee of the Council assures us that the extra money will be forthcoming."

This motion was adopted unanimously.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

OREGON KEEPS REED FORTUNE.

JUDGE MONROE SUSTAINS EXECUTORS OF THE WILL.

Bases Decision on Action of Courts of Sister State, as Well as Upon Facts Elicited Establishing Portland and Not Pasadena as Domicile of Late Wealthy Widow.

After a night session of court in the contest over the probating of the will of the late Mrs. Amanda Reed of Pasadena, Judge Monroe in the Superior Court last evening decided in favor of the executors of the will.

The question hinged on the legal domicile of the testatrix—whether it was Portland or Pasadena—and on the decision depended the disposal of an immense fortune and the destinies of an institute of art and science, which Mrs. Reed and her husband had made provision to endow bountifully.

Attorney J. A. Gibson, representing the contestants, made the closing argument last evening.

In rendering his decision, Judge Monroe held that the California court was bound by the action of the Oregon courts, which had held in favor of the executors, and he stated, secondly, that he decided similarly on the facts adduced during the trial.

Simeon Reed was one of the pioneers of Portland. He was one of the incorporators of the Oregon Steam Navigation Company, in which he, Capt. Ainsworth, and a Mr. Thompson all made a fortune. Reed also became owner of the Bunker Hill-Sullivan mines in the Coeur d'Alene district, which brought another fortune. In many other corporations he was interested, but in 1891 his health broke down and he went to Europe with Mrs. Reed. Prior to leaving for Europe the "Carmelita" place was purchased at Pasadena, and Attorney Gibson claimed under the evidence put in that the Reeds stripped their Portland residence and moved even the ornaments in the garden to Pasadena. All business affairs were left in the hands of Martin Wynch, a nephew, and neither Mr. or Mrs. Reed ever returned to Oregon to live.

PLANS PASADENA HOME.

In three years Mr. Reed died, and his wife took the body back to Portland for burial, returning soon to her southern home. She had plans drawn for a home, and on the first floor had a bedroom designed so that when she was old and feeble she would not be compelled to climb stairs.

In behalf of the contestants, Mrs. Wood, who married a brother of Mrs. Reed, stated that she was living in Mississippi, where her husband—who was an army officer—had died and was buried, when her sister-in-law persuaded her to remove to Portland. Later, they asked her to join them in going to Pasadena. Mrs. Wood said that, with her big family, she could not do so unless they intended to remove permanently. Being assured on this point, the Wood family also settled in Pasadena. This was a very specific statement, and appeared to indicate clearly enough that the Reeds had determined to live and die in their new home.

Mr. Reed had left all his property to his wife, leaving to her good judgment what she should do toward aiding charitable enterprises. Seven years before her death, C. A. Dolph, her attorney at Portland, drew her will, in which the main part of the estate was left to trustees for the benefit of the Reed Institute of Art and Science. Under the law of Oregon there is no inhibition against leaving any amount of money to charitable objects. The law of California, on the other hand, limits the amount that may be willed to one-third of the total value of the estate.

Mrs. Reed left specific legacies of $5000 to her sisters, nephews and nieces—one sister being now 90 years of age—and the contesting heirs felt that inasmuch as Mrs. Reed had lived for about thirteen years in California, her estate ought to be administered here.

In Oregon there is about $500,000 worth of real estate, and $600,000 worth of personal property, while in California the real estate is worth about $300,000, and the personal property about $50,000.

LEGAL DISTINCTION.

Martin Wynch, the nephew and manager of the Reed business interests in Oregon, filed the will at Portland, and had it probated, and then filed a copy in Los Angeles, and had it also probated here as a foreign will. The contestants thereupon began proceedings in Oregon, and also here to combat not the will but the mode of probating the will.

The county court in Oregon held Mrs. Reed to have never lost her domicile, and upon appeal to the District Court the three judges sitting en banc sustained that finding. Now the matter is on appeal to the Supreme Court of that State.

Here in Los Angeles a demurrer was interposed to the complaint filed, wherein it was pointed out that the Oregon courts had decided the matter in issue, and the courts of California could not disturb that decision. Judge Wilbur overruled the demurrer, and, an answer having been filed, the case was carried to trial.

In his argument, Mr. Gibson took the ground that the decree of the Oregon courts have no effect, and cannot oust the California courts from their right to decide in the disposition of the property of one of its citizens—that is, conceding that the question of domicile is settled in favor of the contestants. A recent decision of the Supreme Court (case of Clark) appeared to sustain this view.

But the proponents to the will—being the executor of the will and the trustees of the Institute of Art and Science—deny not only the arguments of counsel on the other side, but even some of the premises are repudiated as not reflecting the true state of affairs.

Judge Works contended that both Mr. and Mrs. Reed were essentially simple but shrewd-minded people, broad in their sympathies, and perfectly agreed in their wishes as to what should be done with their money. They had been considerate of their relatives during their lifetime, and left them all legacies by special bequest. But the frequent topic of conversation between this husband and wife was how to use the bulk of their fortune, so as to do the most good for young people.

AGREE ON INSTITUTE.

The Reeds conferred with their close friends, and reached the conclusion that the youth of both sexes might be best benefited by practical training, and their ideals maintained and refined by art in its various branches. This was the idea agreed upon between the husband and wife, and in its detailed form Mrs. Reed mentioned in her will the Institute of Art and Science as the beneficiary of the larger part of her fortune.

Judge Works contended that the will itself is a strong argument in favor of the fact that Mrs. Reed actually was and always regarded herself as a legal resident of Portland, and not of Pasadena. Apart from the declarations of that instrument, however, Mr. Dolph, the family attorney for many years, stated that he had drawn many instruments for her and several wills. When doing so he specifically asked her if she still regarded her home as in Portland, and if she didn't intend to change her domicile to Pasadena. Mrs. Reed replied that her home was in Portland, and would remain so.

Then, too, it was pointed out that at the death of Mr. Reed, his wife, as executrix, had to make oath as to her place of residence, and under such solemn conditions elected Portland. Then, again, the bosom friend of Mrs. Reed, Mrs. Graham, recited a long conversation she had with her friend about the tendency to contest the wills of wealthy persons, when Mrs. Reed specifically alluded to the fact that her home was in Portland, where her will had been prepared by skilled attorneys, so that it would stand any attack made upon it.

In his argument, Judge Works urged that, inasmuch as the Oregon court had taken the initiative in the probating of the will, its finding was conclusive, and cannot be litigated here. Counsel claimed the support of the authorities, but in the case of Clark, quoted by Mr. Gibson, Judge Monroe inclined partially toward the theory that the probating of the will in Oregon would not in itself be binding upon a California court, though his opinion in this regard was minimized by his saying that in the Clark case the foreign heirs had not interposed by inaugurating a contest.

LEAVES DAUGHTER A DOLLAR.

DENIS LE DUC'S WILL FILED.

The last will of Denis Le Duc, the civil engineer and French-Canadian of aristocratic connections in France, was yesterday filed for probate. The amount of property in California is small, and the amount for which probate is asked is only $1000.

To Georgette Le Duc Elliott, of Denver, the only daughter of the deceased, is left the sum of $1, upon the sole condition that she does not contest the will. Should she elect to break the will and have it set aside the direction is given that the $1 is to be lost to Mrs. Elliott, and is to be given to the Salvation Army at Denver.

To his "true and devoted friend," Lucile Isabel Sells, Sierra Vista street and Wilbur avenue, "sometimes known by her professional name, Isabel Gilbers," all the real and personal property of whatsoever kind is bequeathed without reservation.

J. N. O. Rech and Eugene Lafontaine are mentioned as executors, and the instrument, which bears date of February 1, 1906, is witnessed by J. N. O. Rech, Sue A. Rech, and S. K. Sells.

A dispatch from Denver to The Times says that Lucile Isabel Sells is well known there. She was the wife of Frank Earl, long secretary of the Denver Mining Exchange, and the daughter of Col. Sells of Washington, later of Chicago.

Earl's real name was A. Gilbert. He was deposed as secretary and has been a fugitive for two years. He disapproved of the friendship of Le Duc and his wife, the latter having taken part in theatricals for a time and then coming to the Coast.

Le Duc's disinherited daughter declares that he left but a small estate, despite reports to the contrary.

HARBEN CONVICTED.

SWINDLED HIS LANDLADY.

Steven Harben played a mean trick upon Mrs. Nancy J. Cason at Long Beach, and now he has to pay the penalty. Yesterday he was tried and convicted in Judge Smith's court of passing a fictitious bank-bill.

Mrs. Cason is not a lodging-house keeper in the ordinary sense of the term, but sought to eke out things by taking just two roomers. Harben took a room, paying for two weeks in advance—that is, he tendered a bill drawn upon a bank of New Brunswick, N. J., for $20, and purporting to have been signed by John B. Hin, president. Mrs. Cason returned $17 in cash, and after that she didn't see much of her new roomer.

FOOD OR STIMULANT.

Ask your doctor if when he orders a patient to drink lots of pure milk he advises the addition of a large quantity of whiskey. He'll tell you "no" very emphatically. Yet there are people who, when ordered to get Scott's Emulsion, will accept some wine, cordial or extract of cod liver oil and think it is the same thing or better. If you want and need cod liver oil in its best, purest and most easily digested form, get Scott's Emulsion. If you want whiskey, that's another matter, but don't look for the same results.

"Some time ago I wrote you [illegible] cook on the Cuticura Remedies. [illegible] received it O. K. and went and got the Soap, Ointment, and Pills. The [illegible] me more good than any medicine I used. They cured me of my skin disease and I am very thankful to you. My trouble was eruption of the skin, which broke out in spots all over my body and caused a continual itching that nearly drove me wild at times. I took medicine of a doctor, but it did not help me, and when I saw in a paper as advertised, I sent to you for the Cuticura Remedies and I studied my case in it. Then I went to the drug store and bought a cake of Cuticura Soap, one box of Cuticura Ointment, and one vial of Cuticura Pills. From the first application I received relief. I used the Soap, Ointment and two extra cakes of Cuticura Soap, and was completely cured. I had suffered for two years, and I cannot thank Cuticura for my cure enough. If you wish, you may publish this letter. I am a friend forever, Claude N. Johnson, Grove Farm, R. F. D. 2, Wadesboro, N. C., June 15, 1905."

GOOD CARDS AT HORSE SHOW.

Craven's Entries Again Take Most Ribbons.

Many Knotty Problems for the Busy Judges.

The Championship Will Be Decided Today.

The second day of the Pasadena [illegible] Show brought out as large a [illegible] crowd as witnessed the events on the [illegible] opening day, and the exhibits, while [illegible] varying little from the day previous, [illegible] carried with them a greater measure [illegible] of class, and the decisions of the [illegible] judges were more popular.

[illegible] There were many knotty problems [illegible] for the judges to unravel, but in each [illegible] instance the winners showed such dis[illegible]tinction as to allow the layman to [illegible] agree his judgment with the expert [illegible] gentlemen awarding the decisions.

[illegible] The most interesting events of the [illegible] day, and which many of the audience [illegible] missed by leaving early, were the [illegible] heavy draught teams, and the last [illegible], class 14, for combination horses, [illegible] suitable for riding and driving. This [illegible] was called out the cream of the saddle [illegible]rs, many of whom were in Thurs[illegible]day's events, including Naco, the Bloe[illegible]mington horse, that captured two seconds [illegible] in the previous exhibits; Merry Boy, [illegible] Zier's crack Kentucky gaited [illegible]ld, also twice in for second, Fri[illegible]day. The horses were exhibited first [illegible] trig and then to saddle, finishing in [illegible]ames, W. L. Graves's Gamecock [illegible] being the blue.

[illegible]ntiment again was with the Bur[illegible] entries yesterday, and had ap[illegible]pear been allowed to influence the [illegible] judges the Redlands entries would [illegible] have carried away the blue, but again [illegible] Cravens stable captured a major[illegible]ity of the events, taking first in three [illegible]nts, class 5, harness horses, ladies' [illegible], appointments, with Cardinal and [illegible]rn Prince; class 3, harness horses, [illegible], appointments, 15.2 and over, [illegible] Prince Gamble and Prince Royal; [illegible] 11, for single victoria, appoint[illegible]s, with Prince Royal. Cravens [illegible] took third with Sporting Duchess [illegible] in class 1, for harness horses to gig, [illegible]ing in all eight firsts to date. [illegible]rold A. Richardson of Santa Bar[illegible]bara surprised the audience by taking [illegible]d honors from Burrage, with [illegible]s to gig and with Imp. Welsh [illegible], also to gig. Mr. Burrage cap[illegible]tured one blue ribbon in class 12, run[illegible]ning appointments, with Coronado, [illegible]ating W. G. Durfee's brown stal[illegible]lion Coronado, which won the blue [illegible]on Friday in the single roadster [illegible].

[illegible]. B. Meyers of Los Angeles cap[illegible]tured the blue ribbon in the draught[illegible] exhibit, showing a pair of 3300-[illegible]pound Belgians, to dray. Dr. F. F. [illegible], with Della Fox, captured [illegible]ons in the five-gaited saddle-horse [illegible], and R. N. Smith, Jr., took first [illegible] in polo exhibition.

[illegible] There was no exhibit received more [illegible]s than the heavy harness [illegible], which included three pairs of [illegible]s and a trio. These magnificent [illegible] were perfect in every respect, [illegible] the judges experienced much dif[illegible]ficulty in deciding between the Pioneer [illegible] Company's 3300-pound black [illegible] and J. B. Meyer's 3500-pound [illegible] pair, alone deciding the issue. [illegible] Both teams were attached to dray [illegible] loads ranging from 3600 to [illegible] pounds.

[illegible] The funny performer of the day was [illegible] Black Flyer, Harold Richard[illegible]son's pony 12.2 hands, weight 900 [illegible]. A more perfect specimen of [illegible] could hardly be found to conceive, and he will [illegible] no doubt carry away the cham[illegible]pionship in his class today. This ani[illegible]mal is one of four of his strain in the [illegible] United States, the others being the [illegible] pair, Little Boy, owned by Mrs. [illegible] Hughes of New York; Berkley Ban[illegible]ner, belonging to Judge William [illegible] of New York, and Tom Lawson's [illegible] pony Bonnie.

[illegible] The day was good-humored today and [illegible] pleased the Judges to decide the [illegible] events, and the grand stand was kept [illegible] entertained with the usual calls at dif[illegible]ferent horses and other social cour[illegible]tesies.

[illegible] Class 12, for runabouts and appoint[illegible]ments, horse 60 and appointment 40 [illegible] per cent.—A. C. Burrage's Coronado, [illegible] E. H. Groenendyke's Gamester, [illegible]; Miss Irma Zier's Mayflower. [illegible] Other entries: Benjamin Blos[illegible]som's Naco and Queen, W. G. Dur[illegible]fee's Coronado, Miss Zier's Mayflower. [illegible] Otrl was injured yesterday and [illegible] was [illegible] Class 5, for harness horses, ladies' [illegible] appointments, horses 60, appoint[illegible]ments 40 per cent.—Mrs. J. S. Craven's [illegible] Queen and Crown Prince, first; [illegible] Zier's Pirate and Merry Boy, sec[illegible]ond; C. P. Morehous's Genevieve and [illegible] Leo, third.

[illegible] Class 4, for harness horses, pairs, [illegible] appointments, 15.2 and over—J. S. Cra[illegible]ven's Prince Royal and Prince Gamble, [illegible] second; R. A. Burrage's Bessie and Blos[illegible]som, second; John Lambert's Admiral [illegible] Commodore, withdrawn.

[illegible] Class 13, for saddle horses, five [illegible] entries—Dr. F. F. Rowland's Della Fox [illegible], first; J. A. Graves's Rex Claybourne, [illegible] second; F. W. Tuttin's Lenora, third. [illegible] entries: H. E. Huntington's [illegible] and D. M. Linnard's Chime, W. C. [illegible] Hughes's Jocelyn.

[illegible] Class 11, for single Victoria, appoint[illegible]ments, horse 60 and appointment 40 [illegible] per cent.—W. S. Craven's Prince Royal, [illegible] first; W. L. Graves's Game Cock, sec[illegible]ond; F. E. Wilcox's Duke Keeler, third. [illegible] Lambert's Admiral also entered.

[illegible] Class 26, for ponies in harness, 14 and [illegible] under 15.2—Harold A. Richardson's Welch [illegible] pony, first; Miss Zier's Stubby, sec[illegible]ond; Mrs. Carrie Cummack's Midget, [illegible] third. J. B. Phillips's Laddy, with[illegible]drawn.

[illegible] Class 1, for harness horses, best suit[illegible]ed for gig—H. A. Richardson's Duke, [illegible] first; A. C. Burrage's Ideal, sec[illegible]ond; A. C. Burrage's Sporting Duchess, [illegible] third; Craven's Show Girl and Wil[illegible]liam McKie's Bridlington Ganymede [illegible] withdrawn.

[illegible] Class 24, for polo ponies, middle and [illegible] weight—B. N. Smith's San Di[illegible]mas first; J. Weiss's Anthracite, sec[illegible]ond; B. N. Smith, Jr.'s Arizona, third.

[illegible] Class 2, for draught horses to dray—J. [illegible] Greer's Tom and Sam, first; Pio[illegible]neer Company's black Belgians, [illegible] second; Craven's bay [illegible] Prince, third, the same owners's bay [illegible] Prince, third.

[illegible] Class 14, for combination horses, [illegible] suitable for Judge Francis T. [illegible] Willett and the executive commit[illegible]tee of the association. The require[illegible]ments called for horses suitable for [illegible] saddle and saddle purposes—horses [illegible] to be first shown to an appropriate [illegible] and to be then unhitched in the [illegible] and judged under saddle at walk, [illegible] trot and canter. Horses best adapted [illegible] for both purposes to receive the awards. [illegible] There were eleven entries in this [illegible] class, the largest event of the day. [illegible] All the horses were put through the [illegible] paces required of the roadster, [illegible] were lined up on either side of [illegible] the judges' stand unhitched, saddled [illegible] and put through the paces required of [illegible] saddle horses.

[illegible] Judge Underhill held an audience [illegible] with the executive committee in which [illegible] it was decided that there were two distinct

Many Knotty Problems for the Busy Judges.

The Championship Will Be Decided Today.

The second day of the Pasadena horse show brought out as large a crowd as witnessed the events on the opening day, and the exhibits, while falling little from the day previous, were with them a greater measure of class and the decisions of the judges were more popular.

There were many knotty problems for the judges to unravel, but in each case the winners showed such distinction as to allow the layman to agree in his judgment with the expert ones awarding the decisions.

One of the most interesting events of the day which many of the audience missed by leaving early, were the class for draught teams, and the last class 14, for combination horses, suitable for riding and driving. This called out the cream of the saddle horses, many of whom were in Thursday's events, including Naco, the Blossom, that captured two seconds in previous exhibits; Merry Boy, Joe's crack Kentucky gaited mare, also twice in for second, Friday. The horses were exhibited first under saddle, finishing in harness. W. L. Graves's Gamecock Boy (to bike, [illegible] again was with the Burrough entries yesterday, and had apparently been allowed to influence the judges, the Redlands entries would have carried away the blue, but again Owen's stable captured a majority of the events, taking first in three classes, harness horses, ladies' saddle horses, with Cardinal and Prince Royal; class 5, harness horses, gentlemen's, 15.2 and over, first to Gamble and Prince Royal; class 6, for single victoria, appointments, with Prince Royal. Cravens Belle third with Sporting Duchess fourth; class 7, for harness horses to gig, were all eight firsts to date.

Mrs. A. Richardson of Santa Barbara amused the audience by taking the honors from Burrage, with Dick to gig and with Imp, Welsh pony, to gig. Mr. Burrage captured the blue ribbon in class 12, running a dead heat with Coronado, owned by W. G. Durfee's brown stallion Coronado, which won the blue ribbon Friday in the single roadster class.

The single exhibit received more applause than the heavy harness class, which included three pairs of horses and a trio. These magnificent teams were perfect in every respect, and the experienced much difficulty in deciding between the Pioneer Company's 3200-pound black mare, J. R. Meyer's 3500-pound team, alone deciding the issue. The teams were attached to drays and were ranging from 3600 to 3700 pounds.

The performer of the day was Fleet Flyer, Harold Richardson's bay mare, 12.2 hands, weight 900 pounds, a rare perfect specimen of horse flesh to conceive, and he will undoubtedly carry away the championship in his class today. This animal is one of four of his strain in the show, the others being the Little Boy, owned by Mrs. Fred Bixby of New York; Berkley Ranch, belonging to Judge William Fleming of New York, and Tom Lawson's Dandy.

The good-humored today and the judges to decide the winners and the grand stand was kept busy with the usual calls at different stands and other social courtesies.

The classes and winners are as follows:

Pen Points

"The good fellow" and other people's good money continue to make the old-time connections.

The Christian missionaries are being escorted out of China. Maybe we shall now hear news of peace.

The dignity of the Montana judiciary is to be restored. The copper kings no longer care to elect the judges.

We are gradually arriving at the conclusion that the barks of the dogs of war are worse than their bites.

Days of sun and moonlit nights of glory in the land that God made. Poppies and springtime in California. Laus Deo.

A theory and not a condition is what faces the Socialist, and it is what will continue to face him until the end of time.

The tourist is now growling because the weather is a little warm. And yet, with all his queer ways, we love the tourist.

Los Angeles should not allow Pasadena to outstrip her. We ought to get up a jackass show. We have plenty of material.

It is a mistake to say that Los Angeles is preparing to grapple with the public ownership lunacy. It was prepared long ago.

Charlie Schwab is reported as being in "fine spirits." So are lots of those people who went into deals with him. They're pickled.

Arms are being smuggled from America into China. This reminds us that occasionally legs are smuggled from China into America.

One difference between John D. Rockefeller and some other men is that he can't keep out of the limelight while they can't get into it.

Mr. Schwab wishes it denied that he is about to die. He has merely lost a few million dollars in a wheat deal and feels a little tired, that's all.

The heathen may rage, but perhaps it is not quite fair to say he imagines a vain thing when a Christian missionary sticks a knife in his throat.

The local Hearst organ crows over the municipal ownership victory in Seattle. As far as Seattle is concerned she will soon be crying over it.

There never was so much talk of battles and so little fighting in the world as at the present time. The god of war has joined the rest of the jaw-wagging pugs.

Newcomers to Los Angeles claim that we do little else but talk real estate. And why not? It will soon all be sold, and then we'll have to talk about something else.

Archeologists now claim that there were only three original jokes, instead of thirteen. If we were asked to name these three jokes we could do so easily enough. Adam, Eve and the snake.

It was rumored a few days ago that the tobacco trust contemplated an entry into Los Angeles, but perhaps it was only the exit of young Mr. Mack, the son of the president of the trust, that was on the minds of those responsible for the rumor.

The Mafia society of murderous cutthroats was never worse in its native Italian lair than it is in Pennsylvania today. Talk about foreign devils in China! We have our own troubles with them in America.

The system of government in France is such that the President really has little authority, most of the power being in the hands of his Cabinet. But now that he is without a Cabinet, who is it that has the power?

France is now industriously engaged in prosecuting inquiries to locate the man who gave out the impression that Pius X was a simple-minded pastoral man from the hay fields of Venice, and that he didn't know politics when he saw it.

The Coroner's jury in San Francisco says that Tenny, the prize fighter who was killed in the ring by Frankie Neil, "died from blows." Such perspicacity is to be commended in a San Francisco jury. It is a wonder the verdict was not "premeditated suicide."

The Emperor of China is descended from the gods, being the son of the morning star, and closely related in his family ties to several comets. And yet his stomach has gone back on him, and all the doctors in China are brewing dope to work a cure on him.

Although Henry Rogers and that other Standard Oil man who called on President Roosevelt the other day refuse to divulge the drift of the conversation, the public can readily believe that the visitors experienced no difficulty in understanding what was said.

Johann Most is still alive and a free man, having been located in Pennsylvania directing the murderous work of the Mafia anarchists. With all the spare rope that there is in this country it seems strange that a little of it couldn't be devoted to the stretching of Johann.

A BATTLE AGAINST BANDITS.

Another demonstration of military force has been found necessary in the Philippines. It appears, from a report by Maj.-Gen. Wood, that a severe action has taken place between United States troops under his command and a body of Moros on Mount Dajo, near Jolo.

The engagement opened on the afternoon of March 6 and ended on the morning of March 8. The position captured was strongly fortified. It is 2000 feet above the sea, and the last 300 feet of ascent described an angle of 60 degrees. The difficulties encountered in reducing this mountain fortress are indicated by the fact that it was necessary to hoist artillery some 300 feet with block and tackle in order to get it into a position for effective action.

From the accounts of the action thus far received, it appears that the demonstration was made against a band of Moro outlaws who had intrenched themselves upon the mountain crest, had employed their leisure in raiding friendly Moros on the target range at Jolo, and had made no end of trouble through their defiance of the governing authority on the island. The losses sustained in the fight are stated at eighteen American soldiers killed and fifty-two wounded, while about six hundred of the Moro outlaws were slain.

Enemies of the government's policy in the Philippines will probably seek to make a great deal of capital out of this incident. Such attempts will fail utterly, in the light of facts as they will be revealed in course of time. That the hunting down of these Moro bandits was approved by the more enlightened Moros is evident from the fact that a considerable force of natives took part in the expedition, and did valiant service. The depredations of the gang of robbers who were exterminated were directly against those of their own race, as well as against all peaceably inclined people. The outlaws might have avoided extermination by ceasing their depredations and submitting to authority. Inasmuch as they refused to do so, nothing was left but to suppress them by force, in the same manner that it frequently became necessary to suppress hostile Indians in our own country when they went on the rampage, pillaging and murdering peaceful persons.

Maj.-Gen. Corbin, who was recently in command of the Division of the Philippines, declares, in an interview at San Francisco, that this encounter has no bearing on the Philippine situation. The Moros, he says, are religious fanatics, and are not amenable to the influences of other peoples. They owe no allegiance except to their Mohammedan faith, and are liable to cause trouble at any time. "Their acts," he adds, "have no more relation to the conduct of the Filipinos than the Apache outbreaks of former days in Arizona with the situation in other States and Territories."

Americans are in the Philippine Archipelago to keep the peace. They are there to protect the half-civilized natives against themselves, to establish better conditions, to teach them a higher civilization, to educate and to benefit them in as many ways as possible. To carry out this purpose, order must be maintained and the safety of life and property must be insured. So long as there is organized robbery and pillage, so long will there be danger of outbreaks such as the one which has just been suppressed so successfully in the Island of Jolo.

The inhabitants of the Philippines were never so free as they are today; never under better conditions; never so well started in the path of progress and enlightenment. Their condition will improve steadily the longer they remain under the tutelage of the United States government. So long as we are in the islands our flag must be respected as the symbol of authority, crime must be held in subjection, and the public peace must be maintained.

ARIZONA'S BRIGHT OUTLOOK.

By a vote of thirty-seven to thirty-five, the Senate yesterday adopted Senator Burrows's amendment to the Joint Statehood Bill, and afterward passed the bill as amended. The Burrows amendment strikes out the provision in the bill relating to the jointure of Arizona and New Mexico, leaving it to apply solely to Oklahoma and Indian Territory. This action of the Senate does not determine the fate of the bill with absolute certainty. If the Senate had passed it without amendment as it came from the House, the vote of yesterday would have made it a law, except for the signature of the President, which would not have been withheld, for he favors the House bill. Now the amended bill will go back to the House for approval. If the House accepts the Burrows amendment, only Oklahoma and Indian Territory will be joined in Statehood, while Arizona and New Mexico will remain separate Territories, as they are at present. If the House refuses to accept the amendment, a joint conference between Senate and House committees will be arranged, and the Senate might thus recede from its action and allow the House bill to become a law.

The latter contingency, though possible, is not probable, at least, it does not appear to be so at this moment. The close vote upon the bill in the Senate, however, offers so small a margin of safety that it will not do to count upon it with any degree of assurance. The majority in favor of the bill was so large in the House that that body may insist upon its position and so bring about a conference. A point which may properly be considered as favorable to Arizona is the fact that the supporters of the Foraker amendment achieved their purpose to secure the rejection of all amendments increasing appropriations, thus avoiding the necessity of sending the bill to a committee of the House, where it might have been held up. The first amendment increasing the appropriation for an election and the proposed constitutional convention in Oklahoma from $100,000 to $150,000, was rejected by a vote of 31 to 40. This would seem to indicate that Arizona has more friends in the Senate than the vote on the Burrows resolution appeared to show.

Should the House accede to the Burrows amendment, the deliverance of Arizona will thus be accomplished, after a hard and determined fight. This has in truth been a fight for liberty—for independence. The argument which apparently had most weight in the Senate was that against the linking of Arizona and New Mexico together in an unwilling union. As Mr. Foraker said: "Arizona is not asking admission, and there never has been an effort to force Statehood on an unwilling Territorial constituency." Mr. Carter also declared that he was unalterably opposed to the coercion of any body of American citizens, much as he would like to vote for a bill supported by the President and a Republican House of Representatives.

As the case stands, while it will not be safe for Arizona to "holler" before she is out of the woods, the hour of her deliverance seems to be near at hand.

FRENCH INTERNAL TROUBLES.

The fall of the Rouvier ministry in France scores not the first failure of French statesmen to grapple with the internal troubles of the republic. It probably does not mark the last. These troubles are radical, and divide the French people fairly into two very nearly equal parts.

These internal dissensions in France are largely the creation of M. Combes, and their first noticeable result was to drive their author from office. At the root of the trouble lies religion.

M. Combes is a 'vert. According to the standpoint of the speaker, he would be termed a convert, a pervert, a revert, or a divert. Whatever prefix is attached to the stem of the word, the thing it stands for is always a character prone to run to extremes. Combes is an excellent example of this extreme attitude of religious 'verts. A man of great mental and physical energy, he is greatly lacking in poise. He is headstrong, precipitate, and over-zealous, the latter especially where religion is involved.

Combes was educated for the priesthood, and under Jesuit influences, too. He 'verted before taking orders, and like Renan, his conversion or reversion, whatever you may call it, carried him to the pole at the opposite extremity of religion.

There is no gainsaying the fact that although his religious opponents drove Combes from office, the thing which he mainly stood for has a strong following in the republic, for although the Combes administration fell, the Combes programme of divorcing the church from the state was carried out by the government which succeeded the one he belonged to. Those opposed to him hoped vainly that the fall of the ministry meant the defeat of the project; but the Chamber of Deputies and the Senate, with the electors of France who put them in office behind them, were of the opinion that a considerable majority of the French people wanted the church and the state separated. A good many of the religious people in the republic are not opposed to such separation, provided it be made along proper lines of cleavage.

Combes's headstrong temper showed itself not only in carrying the programme of separation of church and state to an extreme limit, but also in joining with that another contention which has embittered the minds of the French people quite as much as the main project of divorcing the church from the state. A less headstrong and better poised character than Combes would have been wisely content to carry through one reform at a time, and let cognate reforms wait their turn. That is not the Combes way of doing things. Simultaneously with his conflict for the separation of church and state, he began his crusade against the teaching religious orders of France.

Without going into the merits of the contention, which on his side was that schools taught by the religious orders, male and female, were not only inefficient as a means for developing mental strength and the imparting of proper intelligence, but also disloyal, the main point to be observed is that the movement was untimely. Even if all Combes and his followers allege regarding the inefficiency and disloyalty of the schools under the influences of the religious orders be granted, yet France was not ripe for the change. Taking the republic generally, there is nothing to replace these religious schools. This is partly from the attitude of mind of the French people, many of whom will send their children to no school that is not definitely under church influence, and partly because in many instances there were no other schools to send the children to.

Now, look at the programme for the separation of church and state itself. One need not be an adherent to the dominant church in France to see that the Combes programme goes entirely too far. Of course, it is one of the bad inheritances which comes from the union of the church with the state that the church property should all be held by the state. We can see this in America, where church people rejoice more than unchristian people do in the separation of the state from all unnecessary interference with religion. The churches have been a greater gainer from this fundamental, American principle than even the state has. Here is where the church gets the worst of it in France, as was the case long ago in England and Germany, by her former unholy alliance with the state. The Combes programme strips the church of almost every vestige of religious property. Not only the church edifices and the ground upon which they stand, the presbyteries and other real property in use by the church for generations past, but even the vestments and the holy vessels themselves are claimed as the property of the state. The religious people of France know that nearly all of this property, real, personal and mixed, has been the gift of faithful souls who left them as heritages to the church, for the church's use and for the nurture of Christian souls in religion.

One can easily imagine the resentment that arises in the minds of devoted members of the church as they see these belongings of the temple where they and their ancestors have worshiped for generations, inventoried like junk in a second-hand furniture store by the state officials, very often people bitterly antagonistic to religion.

A man of greater poise than M. Combes would have been content with two things left out of his scheme. First, he would have engaged in only one battle at a time. There are a great many of the French people who would have gone with the Combes programme in separating the church from the state, if the schools of the religious orders had not been attacked simultaneously. Another thing a man of better poise would have done would have been to content himself with a broad separation of the church from all connection with affairs of state, and the state from all interference with religious matters, as in the United States. The church property, in so far as it is used for definitely religious purposes, he would have been content to leave to the church, and a very easy way out of the difficulty might have been found by turning it over piecemeal to the management of the different congregations worshiping at these temples. But it was the extreme of precipitation and folly to include in the confiscation of church property even the vestments of the clergy and the sacred vessels upon the altar.

Such facts as these help to illuminate the prevailing turmoil all over France. A great many people who have no personal interest in religion will not fail to see, if they are fair minded, abundant explanation for the bitter resentment manifested by the religious people of that nation.

"One-Color" Fad.

Feminine frivolers whose parents (or husbands) have so much money that padlocks are not kept on the checkbooks are adopting the fad of choosing a color and having gowns, stationery, boudoir and carriage upholstery, hats, shoes and spats all of the same hue. Washington has several "violet girls," among whom may be mentioned Miss Katherine Elkins and Miss Mathilde Townsend. Mrs. George Westinghouse also likes violet and all her conveyances are upholstered in the palest form of that hue. The Countess of Suffolk, who was Miss Margaret Leiter, likes poppies, and the vivid shade of that flower predominates in her toilets. She has a bright red cart, with red seats. The harnes is garnished elaborately with bowknots of scarlet. The Baroness Von Sternburg is fond of yellow. Her boudoir looks as if Midas had touched it.

UNCLE SAM'S SNAKE DANCE.

WHAT'S SAID IN SAN FRANCISCO.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, March 8.—No one punched Abe Ruef this week, but there are some angry sports who may take a smash at him soon, unless he lifts the "lid" from the tenderloin. The Seattle Whist Club, and the Tahoe Social Club, cannot give functions, and the red-light district is talking of moving out to Lone Mountain. "Zick" Abrams may peddle suspenders, and Harry Corbett may rent his amusement palace to the Salvation Army.

The sports cry that Ruef cannot "deliver the goods," which means that the little boss is willing to have the town wide open as of yore, but his bad partner the District Attorney persists in closing it up. Something has to be done and that quickly, or see all the loose money will go to Emeryville and Sausalito. The "little fellow" counsels patience and urges that the gas and water rates kept him so busy that he had not time to call off Langdon even by telephone. The reasons given for the virtuous spasm here are amusing, and the man who really knows will not tell. One of the reasons is that the Jockey wished a monopoly. Another is that Harvey and Daroux had themselves raided in order to have the town closed up, so that the sports would have to go to Sausalito. This town is not closed tight.

Side entrances are still open, and the saloon business better than ever. The man, corner of California and Kearney streets, is open to reason, and the Mayor has moved into a fine $22,000 open house from his closed $16,000 house on Fillmore street. The plain people hoped that he would move south of Market street, but he objects to being so near the garbage crematory where unconsumed refuse is still accumulating.

Some one has been busy fixing the gas and water rates, and has greatly pleased the two corporations. No colored gentlemen was found in the wood pile, but plenty of bugs were seen in the water ordinance. One large bug is called the sliding scale, and it is so agile that the poor ratepayer cannot keep pace with it. Water is scarce now and the milkmen are using formaldehyde as an adulterant. The Examiner is mildly reproaching the Supervisors for the water ordinance which discriminates against the poor. Under the new rate, the company will make more money than before, but the people are demanding a repeal of the ordinance. The law requires that the rate be fixed in February, so there can be no legal repeal. The friends of the administration admit that a mistake was made, and the blame is laid on an expert named Russell Dunn, who was specially employed to see that a proper rate was passed and who had the name of being a boss bug-killer. Dunn however wishes to sell the city a water supply at cut rates. It may be the same water that the Post is urging the city to buy at once. The Post has found plenty of bugs in Spring Valley water, and it insists nightly that this city must get Sierra water without waiting to lay pipes. It is not a case of dropsy with the Post, but rather a case of water on the brain.

The water problem of this peninsula promises soon to be a serious one. All the available sources on this side have been exhausted by Spring Valley, and two suits have been brought against the company to restrain them from using important rights in Alameda county. The bondholders of Spring Valley may cause trouble when $14,000,000 of bonds become due on September 1, by refusing to take the bonds of the new company. They may elect to take charge of the property itself. But the troubles of the water company are small compared to those of the telephone company. A little political boss was retained to protect it from competition. It was another case of not "delivering the goods." Despite the old company's opposition the new company got an ordinance advertising for a franchise. The boss in vain pleaded with the independent Supervisors. Four Supervisors however prevented a unanimous vote by changing from aye to no, at the last moment when no harm could be done.

The murder of Pugilist Tenny by the fight trust was denounced by a number of ministers, and the mother of the boy has asked for the prosecution of the guilty ones. The authorities however, are too busy raiding tin-horn gamblers to prosecute their friends, for a friendless old woman. The Chronicle has censured the Mechanics' Institute Library trustees for leasing the pavilion for prize fights. It says editorially: "The arena in which the murder was committed was rented for that purpose by the Mechanics' Institute, an institution imagined to be devoted to the uplifting and ennobling of our people."

The architects have protested against a law, which will compel them to divide fees for the erection of public buildings with some administration pet, as yet to be named.

The Federal authorities turned down the Expressmen's Union in its attempt to control the transport business. J. J. Doyle has enjoined the Stablemen's Union.

The Supervisors are ready to pay $4000 to Yorke & Co., an illegal claim, but they will not pay $204 for killing 292 dogs by the cruelty prevention society.

The pound is soon to be put into politics.

When it was learned that the Tonopah Tidewater Railroad would bring the business of the Nevada mining camps to Los Angeles, there was some talk of all the commercial bodies forming one organization for better promotion work, but the paid employés beat it.

After the Oakland authorities proved that there was no truth in the charge of graft made by the Rev. Whitaker, and C. Stuart McMillan, the latter got a $16,000 verdict against the city for showing that the Jockey Club, the Spring Valley Company, and the gas company had escaped paying thousands of dollars of taxes, overlooked by kind officials.

State Senator Simpson of Alameda county and Miss Isabelle Davis still disagree as to whether they will get married.

Berkeley and Stanford have agreed to turn down rugby and to play the same old game in the same old way.

ARMY AND NAVY MEN.

Lieut. R. Treadwell, Philippine Scouts, is due in San Francisco about March 13, from the Philippines, on a three months' leave.

First Lieut. Charles F. Herr, Twenty-first United States Infantry, who has been granted leave of absence for one month, with permission to visit the United States, will sail from Manila about March 25, 1906.

Col. Sedgwick Pratt, Artillery Corps, under his recent promotion, will change station from San Francisco to Fort Washington, Md., where he will command the Artillery District of the Potomac. He will enjoy a two months' leave before joining his new post.

Col. Gorgas, chief sanitary officer of the Panama canal zone, devotes considerable space in his report to a spirited reply to Mr. Poultney Bigelow's recent criticisms upon health conditions in the canal territory. Col. Gorgas protests that Mr. Bigelow "judges us by a sanitary standard of ten years ago, and as applied to the temperate zones."

Capt. Frank S. Cocheu, Twelfth United States Infantry, has been granted leave for two months, with permission to visit China and Japan, effective on or about March 1, 1906. Capt. Cocheu is authorized to await at Nagasaki, Japan, the arrival of his regiment, leaving Manila on the transport scheduled to sail on or about April 15, and proceed with it to San Francisco.

The Judge Advocate General of the Army last week completed his review of the court-martial case of Capt. Arthur F. Curtis, Sixty-first Company, Coast Artillery, who was recently tried at San Francisco on charges involving drunkenness and sentenced to be dismissed from the Army. The case is now before the Secretary of War in connection with the resignation of Capt. Curtis, which he has submitted.

Rear-Admiral Henry Glass, who has been so seriously ill at Mare Island, is now much improved. Commander Lucien Young, who has been in Vallejo for the past four months, will go to San Francisco on April 1, where he has taken apartments at El Monterey on Pine street. Commander Young is attached to the yard only for court-martial duty; it will permit him making his home in San Francisco rather than in Vallejo.

Brig.-Gen. George B. Davis, Judge Advocate General of the Army, and Capt. Charles S. Sperry, of the navy, have been designated by the President to represent the army and navy, respectively, at the second peace conference to be held at The Hague probably next fall. This conference, it will be recalled, was called by the President of the United States at the conclusion of the Russo-Japanese War, but because of internal troubles in Russia, no positive date has yet been set for the meeting. It is understood, however, that it will be held next fall.

The retirement of Col. W. B. Wheeler, Twenty-second Infantry, will promote Lieut.-Col. Alfred Reynolds, who is detailed to the inspector general's department, and is now in Manila, to the grade of colonel. He will be assigned to command the Twenty-second Infantry. This will leave a vacancy in the grade of lieutenant colonel in the inspector general's department, which will be filled by the detail of a lieutenant colonel of infantry. Maj. R. J. C. [illegible] of the Ninth Infantry, will be promoted to be a lieutenant colonel and Maj. J. J. Cotter will be promoted to be major, leaving Capt. W. H. [illegible] senior captain of infantry.

Rear-Admiral Colby M. Chester, U.S.N., who was retired on February 9, has been temporarily assigned to special duty with the Bureau of Navigation. He recently returned to Washington from his special duty of observing the solar eclipse from the coast of Spain, and has brought with him a large mass of figures and notes. It is to assimilate these figures that he has been given special duty.

A movement started by Col. Frederick Wise, of New York, to present Philippine soldiers with [illegible] resulted in the shipment to Washington, Mrs. Barney, the wife of Lieutenant James P. Barney, Quartermaster, at San Fernando de Dilao, Province of Luzon, five barrels of books. It is estimated that the [illegible] thousand volumes were sent. A phonograph with cylinders for instruction in Spanish also [illegible] method.

The War Department has published the record and proceedings of the court-martial in the case of Second Lieutenant Horace U. Little, Twenty-fifth Philippine Scouts, tried on charges of disobedience of orders, drunkenness on duty and disrespect to superior officers, found guilty and sentenced to be dismissed from the service. No action in the case has yet been taken by the War Department.

The army transport Sumner sailed from Manila to New York from Cebu, March 25, with Lieut.-Gen. Adna R. Chaffee, Rear-Admiral Higginson, and other army and navy officers on board.

Maj. and Mrs. William A. Glassford have spent three days in Denver as guests of Frederick H. Morley, daughter of Mrs. Frank Wheaton, on their way to San Francisco, to sail on the transport for Manila. Mrs. Wheaton's daughter, Miss Catherine N. Miller, went to Manila from Denver, and will make the trip with them on the Logan, sailing from San Francisco. Lieut. Nichols have already spent many years in the Philippine service, with the Twenty-third Infantry, and as a battalion of that regiment in Samar, and was the first commander at that station, where he was very apt to return, as an inspector.

BANQUET GIVES MEMBERS CHEER.

SECOND DAY'S SESSION OF Y.M. C.A. AT RIVERSIDE.

Officers Are Elected and State Committee Named, After Which Interesting Addresses on Pertinent Topics by Prominent Speakers Hold the Closest Attention.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

RIVERSIDE, March 9.—The exercises of second day's session of the twenty-fifth annual convention of the Y.M.C.A., were opened with prayer, after the delegates and their friends listened to a careful and philosophical study on the teachings of Jesus by Henry Kingman, D.D., president of Pomona College.

The election of officers then took place, the following being chosen: President, Dr. Elmer E. Kelly of San Diego; vice-presidents in the order named, George W. Marston, San Diego; J. M. Anderson, Fresno; S. H. Herrick, Los Angeles, and J. Ross Clark, Los Angeles; secretary, M. A. Hollabaugh, Pasadena; assistant secretaries, J. E. Enden, San Francisco, and Frank Dalzell of Occidental College. The standing State committees announced were:

Executive committee, H. J. McCoy, San Diego; E. F. Stauffer, Long Beach; Frank T. Tuthill, San José; Arthur L. Weed, Oakland; press committee, A. H. Reeves, Stockton; C. F. Quillian, Los Angeles; W. A. Bilwell, Santa Cruz; railroad committee, C. H. Ham, San Diego; W. G. Alexander, San José; Bible study, San Francisco; committee on resolutions, Dr. Solon Briggs, Pasadena; J. J. Squier, Vallejo; J. H. Barkley, Berkeley; committee on religious meetings, Dr. J. W. Neblett, Los Angeles; Stephen R. Wood, San Diego; H. M. May, Riverside; committee on State committees' report, G. Hall, San Francisco; W. R. Hale, Santa Barbara; Matt J. McGowan, Fresno; Jos. Sprunger, Long Beach.

During the election of the officers Walter M. Wood, of Chicago, assistant secretary of education of the Y.M.C.A., delivered a stirring address on "The Younger Association Member," in which he investigated the boy problem. His address was very humorous. He showed in many quaint ways, that the boy should be treated as an individual and not according to some set of averages.

Yesterday afternoon, C. K. Ober of New York City, field secretary of the international committee, explained what is needed for the extension and equipment of the Y.M.C.A.

The evening session two addresses were given and power of the Y.M.C.A. Modern business ethics and in education were delivered by Hugh S. Alexander, who discussed the financial side of the question, while M. Wood the educational. Alexander is the manager of the Pacific Coast Company at San José, and has for years devoted years to the study of scholastic problems.

During the recess hours of the convention delegates were taken for drives to beauty spots of Riverside and, under the guidance of local members, this morning the banquet was held.

WOMEN'S CLUBS.

The Friday Morning Club was delightfully entertained yesterday at the home of Dr. Caroline Seymour Severance, 1126 North Breed street. Mrs. Severance was assisted in receiving her guests by her mother, who is visiting here from the East. The club members responded to roll-call by quotations. The study was given under the leadership of Miss Stanage, and the theme for the day was "The Drama." Talks along this line were given by Mrs. Godin and Mrs. Anna Bonney Court and its Founder," the subject of an interesting paper by Mrs. Frank Burlingame. "The Drama in Mexico, and the History Leading Up to the Present Situation" were the subject handled in a very interesting and instructive way by Mrs. Frank A. A piano solo by Miss Burlingame closed the formal part of the meeting, after which refreshments were served. The club will meet at the same place next week.

The Friday Morning Club held a business session yesterday, only club members being admitted. It was a short meeting, and the amendment, which some time since, to raise the dues to $10 per annum, carried. Mrs. W. Pridham, the delegate to the convention at San José, gave a verbal report. The reception to be given by Dr. Douglas Hyde, the eminent scholar, and Mrs. Hyde at the Ebell next Tuesday afternoon under the direction of Mrs. Dr. A. Barker and will be a very swell affair.

Saturday Morning.

Saturday is to be a festive occasion among the different clubs, each of which will furnish their quarters, elaborately decorated with palms, ferns and smilax. The Saturday Morning Club is among those to announce their color which is to be yellow, their hall to be decorated with wild mustard. Mrs. J. T. Neighbors has been appointed chairman of the Decorating Committee.

The music section of the Wednesday Morning Club will give a musicale next Thursday from 3 to 5 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Burge, No. 145 North Gates street. As this is the first affair given by the section during the year, an excellent programme is anticipated, and the leader, Mrs. Gordon Kauffman, and her assistants will lend all her efforts to make it a success.

The all-day session of the club this week is to overflowing with attendance. The parliamentary drill by Mrs. Price, music by Miss Rhoads and Mrs. E. D. Park, and the addresses by Mrs. Swanner of Santa Ana and Mrs. A. W. Carver made a delightful morning. The club luncheon served by a very large number of ladies, and the afternoon session was a delightful tea, interspersed with reports from delegates to the recent convention at San José. There were also readings by Miss Marie A. Gallagher, a tenor solo by Roger Fulton, and selections by Miss Gibson and Mrs. F. R. Burge.

REAL ESTATE DEALS JUST CLOSED.

Deed made to Mrs. Henrietta Cohen by Mrs. Dorothea Barker through agent of Black Bros. 65x123 feet, northeast corner of Grand avenue and Eighteenth street, with buildings of nominal value, for $10,000.

H. H. Wood to a local investor a lot and new eight-room residence on East Twenty-third street, lot 50x150 feet, for $6000.

Deed from F. W. Vogelein a new eight-room frame residence on Juliet street, lot 50x142 feet, to H. R. Dixon an unimproved lot on El Molino street 150 feet south of Ninth street, 50x128 feet. New owner will improve with a fine residence; consideration, $1500.

Mrs. A. Miner to R. R. Brewster an unimproved lot on Juliet street 250 feet north of Twenty-fourth street, lot 50x135 feet, $1700.

Dr. K. D. Wise completed the sale of his homestead on Grand avenue, opposite Fourteenth street, to Dr. George L. Cole. The price is understood to be somewhere near $30,000. The lot is 117x189 feet to an alley. It is rumored that the California Hospital will use the property for the erection of a rest cure and hydro-therapeutic establishment. Mr. Wise gives possession on April 20.

Girls' Suits That Have Style to Them

Tailor suits that are essentially girlish in cut and trimming, yet possess all the grace of contour and lasting shapeliness that you expect in more costly suits for women.

The clothing of girls is not a neglected side issue in THIS store—you'll realize that fact the moment you enter the department.

Pony and Eton suits, of rich gray wool suitings, hairline striped cream serges and many other stylish fabrics, richly trimmed and perfectly tailored—seventeen-fifty to forty-five dollars—14, 16 and 18-year sizes.

Peter Thompson suits, of white, tan and blue linens, in 12 to 18-year sizes—twelve dollars.

Shirt waist suits, of zephyr ginghams, neatly trimmed with new embroideries—$6.50 to $17.50.

Shirt waist suits of barred and figured dimities—$6.50 to $15—12 to 18-year sizes.

Boys' wash suits are ready.
Washable hats for boys and girls, too.
And high-grade Milan straw sailor hats.

Men's Furnishings

Seasonable Underwear — Latest arrivals in men's underwear are of medium weight sea island cotton, basket weave, also derby ribbed in a trifle heavier weight, drawers double-seated, at fifty cents a garment, a splendid value. A wide range of domestic and foreign makes to choose from, at nearly every price step between $1 and $4.

Golf Shirts — New spring styles in golf and negligee shirts are ready whenever you are. Cuffs attached or detached, as you prefer, $1 to $3.50.

Half Hose — Ready for you men who want something new — something different. Dozens of patterns, from 12½c to $2 a pair.

Veilings 25c

A little of this, that and the other occupying needed space in the veiling department, so out go plain and dotted chiffon veilings (some of the wide sorts, for automobiling) at 25c a yard, though they sold from regular stock up to 75c.

Silk Belts 50c

Broken lines can't be allowed to accumulate here, which is the sole explanation for the reduction in these splendid silk taffeta and heavy English moire tailored and form-shaped belts. Sale price 50c, former values as high as $2.50, none were less than $1.

Spring Apparel Styles

At this season of the year every woman's mind is occupied largely with what is newest and freshest in spring and summer garments, and yearly more of them turn to this store as the logical source of supply. A word of this week's arrivals.

The all white costume or suit continues to be the most popular, though remarkably good effects are obtained through the use of colored linens.

Matinee and lingerie suits show lace, ribbon and embroideries—eyelets alternating with sprig motifs worked in blind effects, many by hand, on waists and skirts. Pretty models are shown in princess type.

Handsome coats of silk or cloth, with plaited, frilled, soutache braid and lace decorations are highly fashionable, so-called frock and frill styles, while the rough rajahs for traveling wear are extremely popular.

Examples of these and many other exquisite models may be seen here in variety, at prices modest for like qualities.

Children's Wash Dresses
Half Price

We select infants' apparel and accessories carefully and thoroughly, gather worthy sorts and mark no garment a penny above its honest value. And today we've slated some unusually pretty white wash dresses for children of 2 to 7 years, for quick clearance, at half price, because the size range is broken.

New Gloves

"Vallier" Gloves—every well posted woman knows their excellence—shown here in a good assortment of colors, the pastel shades being particularly prominent. With three-pearl clasps and tailored buttonholes (can be easily buttoned) $2.25 a pair. We never had so complete a line of silk gloves, in both short and elbow lengths, as we're showing right now.

BIBLE LESSONS.

FOR SUNDAY-SCHOOL TEACHERS AND OTHER BIBLE STUDENTS.

Prepared for The Times by J. S. Kirtley.

SUNDAY, MARCH 11.

Mat. v, 33-48: "The Tongue and the Temper."

THE CONNECTION.

This is from the same sermon on the mount. Bear three things in mind: Jesus is combatting, not the laws of Moses, but the teachings of the rabbis, which had supplanted those laws, with the people; He is really completing those laws, fulfilling them, filling them full, carrying them to their conclusion, in his teachings and embodying them in himself; He is setting forth principles rather than rules. Before speaking the words of our lesson, He had disclosed the principle of conduct with reference to two crimes, murder and adultery. They were not only to refrain from the overt acts, but from those evil feelings out of which the acts come, and without which, there would be no such acts.

THE LESSON.

I.

"Simple Affirmation versus Sacrilegious Oaths." (Verses 33-37.)

Again, ye have heard that it was said to them of old time, Thou shalt not forswear thyself, but shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths; but I say unto you, Swear not at all; neither by the heaven, for it is the footstool of His feet; nor by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. Neither shalt thou swear by thy head, for thou canst not make one hair white or black. But let your speech be, Yea, yea; Nay, nay; and whatsoever is more than these is of the evil one.

He was not speaking into the air but attacking their evil habits.

(1.) The prevailing practice. It was to supplement their own word with oaths; not official oaths, given for the perfecting of legal processes, but private oaths taken for the purpose of adding weight to their statements. Further, they took those oaths with the single purpose of deceiving. Using sacred names in their asseverations, they would seek the confidence of the hearer for the purpose of deceiving.

(2.) The evil of it.

First of all it was lying and the testimony of travelers is that the orientals are the greatest liars on earth. Next it showed that they did not care for their own words. They lacked a true, honorable respect for themselves. If they esteemed themselves they would mean as much by "no" as "yes," as if it was supported by any number of oaths. The reason it is right to put oneself under oath in a court of justice, as Jesus did and as Paul did, is that the court requires it for its own protection. And that is so, because so many could not be trusted, without the oath that all others must be subjected to the suspicion of dishonesty, implied in the oath. Further, the practice showed a curious sort of superstitious irreverence, for the scriptures and for God. The scriptures had said "thou shalt not perjure thyself, but shall perform unto the Lord thine oaths" and try to obey the letter of the command, but they used all sacrilegious ingenuity in evading it while seeming to obey it. They valued their own honor, so little they taught that only the oaths in the name of Jehovah were binding, then they went to work to win confidence by oaths that would almost use the name of God, yet would give them a chance to repudiate them. They would swear by the heavens and the temple. He told them that such swearing was sacrilege because God was in the heaven and the temple and their own heads could not change.

II.

"Unselfish Service versus Private Revenge." (Verses 38-42.)

Ye have heard that it was said, an eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth; but I say until you, resist not him that is evil; but whosoever smiteth thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also. And if any man would go to law with thee, and take away thy coat, let him have thy cloak also. And whosoever shall compel thee to go one mile, go with him two. Give to him that asketh thee, and from him that would borrow of thee turn not thou away.

(1.) The prevailing theory.

They confounded civic regulations with private duties. In the laws of Moses, of Solon and of other wise lawgivers, the State must protect itself and its subjects from evil doers, by punishing them for their evil deeds, in proportion to the evil done. This strictly forbids private revenge. The law was just, for their times, and is so for ours. They perverted it, by making it the law of their private relationships and habits.

(2.) The wrong of it.

It was first of all a violation of God's law, in changing civic justice into private vengeance. It was next wrong, in giving way to the worst rather than acting on the noblest sentiments. It was useless, since revenge never destroys enmity, but only makes it worse; never satisfies the thirst for vengeance, but only makes it more bloodthirsty. It is awfully wrong, since there is a noble alternative, that will usually change the enemy into a friend and make him punish himself far more severely than another could, while it will make the injured man nobler and greater.

(3.) The right way.

We must first of all have the Christ-like spirit and must seek the good of the offender in each case. Anything else leads to a war of extermination, which is usually interminable. The principle is that you can do more for the one who does you an injury, and, therefore, for yourself, if you do not resist than if you resist.

Here are several forms of injury one might receive and in each case he must be willing to suffer more than justice requires, rather than give way to a wrong spirit or make the wrongdoer worse. First in the matter of personal violence, rather than show a like spirit or aggravate the enemy's violence, one should be willing to be smitten on both cheeks. And in the matter of deprivation of property, it is better to give up even the more expensive outer "cloak," which the law could not seize, than to cherish a vindictive spirit for the loss of the "coat" or tunic, of which he has been deprived by law. Also in the matter of restraint of personal liberty, when impressed by some strong robber or enemy to travel with him a mile in order to show him the way or render some other service, far better go on another mile voluntarily than to give way to a revengeful spirit. Even when you are not under compulsion to submit to a wrongdoer and it is simply a matter of granting a loan, better do it than refuse it simply out of selfishness. One must do what is best with a view to his good, rather than just what he asks. That is the way God gives to us. It is a fascinating and conquering religion that enables men to meet the ills of life that way.

III.

"Love versus Hate." (Verses 43-48.)

"Ye have heard that it was said, Thou shalt love thy neighbor, and hate thine enemy; but I say unto you, Love your enemies, and pray for them that persecute you; that ye may be sons of your Father who is in heaven; for He maketh His sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sendeth rain on the just and the unjust. For if ye love them that love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same? And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? do not even the Gentiles the same? Ye therefore shall be perfect, as your Heavenly Father is perfect."

(1.) It is intelligent, for it perceives the worth, even in enemies, at any rate, perceives their possibilities.

(2.) It is sympathetic, for it is attracted toward them, notwithstanding their sins.

(3.) It is unselfish, for it thinks of their good rather than your grudge.

(4.) It is aggressive, for it ministers to them. It ministers in prayer and in doing good. It ministers, all the more, when the enmity is more active and blind and virulent.

(5.) It is Godlike and ranks you up among the sons of God who imitate their Father. He sends the temporal blessings to His enemies without any grudge and He sends His Son to all, with richest spiritual blessings.

(6.) It, therefore, lifts them really above those whom they have considered themselves to be above, the Gentiles. It enables them to make good their claims of superiority, for even the Gentiles love their friends and give them cordial greetings.

(7.) They are on the path toward perfection. It is both a precept and a prophecy. The type after whom they are growing is their Father in heaven, for they are alike Him in feeling and action. That perfection begins at once to show itself in their wholeness, integrity.

The foregoing principles are perfectly illustrated in Christ and they can be embodied in us, only as we know Christ and imitate Him.

WHAT THE MASTERS SAY.

The most objectionable evil, however, is in the too common habit of swearing to almost anything, with and without need. The other day a young girl, scarcely ten, reported to me that another girl had accidentally broken a water pot at the fountain, and in two minutes she must have sworn twenty times by Allah, by the local saints, and by the life of her father and brothers. I wish this case were an exception. The prohibition of Exodus 20:7 is not without cause.—[Howis.

There is a story told of Louis XII of France. He had many enemies, and, when he succeeded to the throne, he caused a list of these to be drawn up and marked against each of their names a large black cross. When this became known, the enemies of the King fled, because they thought it was a sign that he intended to punish them. The King, hearing of their alarm, recalled them and gave them an assurance of his good will, saying that he had placed a cross beside their names to remind him of the cross that brings pardon to all; and he urged them, by his own example, and especially by the example of Him who prayed for His enemies, to go and do likewise.—[Selected.

Wesley was once attacked by a highwayman who demanded his purse. Wesley did not resist, but calmly said: "If you ever come to regret this, as you doubtless will, I beg you remember, 'The blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanseth from all sin.'" Several years afterward a man took Wesley by the hand as he came out of church and said: "Do you remember the time you were robbed in a certain place?" "Yes," said Wesley, "I shall never forget that." "Well, I was the man that robbed you, and the words you spoke to me made me a Christian and an honest man."—[Dixon.

POINTS TO IMPRESS.

(1.) That one's word must be as good as his bond.

(2.) That speech is always a solemnity.

(3.) That all earthly objects are made sacred because of their Creator.

(4.) That sin is to be fought relentlessly.

(5.) That the most destructive weapon against sin is love for the sinner.

(6.) That evil never destroys evil.

(7.) That God is still at work in the world.

(8.) That a loving heart means a level head.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

LIVING LIFE AT ITS BEST.

Terse Comments Upon the Uniform Prayer-meeting Topic of the Young People's Societies. Christian Endeavor, Baptist Young People's Union, Epworth League, etc., for March 11: "James's Picture of a Perfect Man: How Can We Realize It Ourselves?"—[Matt. v, 48; Jas. iii, 1-13.

By William T. Ellis.

A perfect life is a growth. Jesus grew in stature and in favor with God and man. The child that does not develop is unhealthy. Growth is normal and necessary. So it is with a Christian. He must grow; there is no standing still for the child of God. Each new day should find him stronger and wiser—stronger to resist temptation and to serve the Master, and wiser in knowing His will and performing His work.

Christ's perfection atones for our imperfection.

We grow in grace by growing in the knowledge of the Lord. One of the divine means of growth is the word of God. As we increase in understanding of its truths we increase in holiness. There really can be no substantial development of Christian character apart from the use of the Scriptures. The man of God is perfected by the word of God.

New wishes, new words, and a new walk, mark all who are in the new way.

There is a mystery in every Christian life, a mystery apart from which religion is inexplicable. That mystery is the Holy Spirit, Whom no man has seen and Whom no man can understand, yet without Whom no man can find salvation or Christian character. One secret of beauty is the presence of the Spirit in a believer's heart. He is our great helper. Without Him we can do nothing, but by His aid we may grow into the very likeness of Jesus. So in every Christian's daily prayer should be a supplication for the help of the mysterious and mighty Third Person of the Trinity.

Better live straight than long.

We are set among men to live our own best life for their good and for God's honor. We dare not live for self alone. Our mission is to be as widely and as deeply helpful as possible. All our powers are for the benefit of our fellows. What we are and what we may become belong to the world to which God would have us minister.

The worker with human lives especially needs the grace of patience. Natures cannot be changed in a day; tendencies cannot be overcome in an hour. Having done our best by a soul we can only wait. Years alone can test the results of our labor. New impulses, new habits, new purposes are cultivated slowly. Let us not, therefore, spoil our work or our character by impatience. Dr. Deem's famous rhyme applies:

"That man is best
Who does his best
And leaves the rest.
So do not worry."

The new life is an enlarging life. It widens as we advance. Each day's growth reveals new greatness in it. No man has ever yet reached its limits. There are possible heights of loveliness and usefulness which surpass our hopes and dreams. There are depths of communion and peace which exceed our knowledge. The greatness of the new life is inconceivable, though not unattainable. "Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither hath entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that loves Him." This is true of the Christian's life on earth as well as for his inheritance in heaven.

It is when rooted in Christ that we bear the fruits of the Spirit. These fruits cannot be imitated successfully, and they cannot be grown by any other kind of life than that which is united to Christ. But such a life cannot help bearing them unconsciously, any more than a perfect fruit tree can help bearing its fruit in season.

Every life is fragmentary until made complete in Christ.

We must press on to perfection, we cannot drift there.

The nearer we get to holiness the farther away from it we feel.

Little virtues make beautiful lives.

Only they grow better whose goal is best. There is no other way to excellence than this. It is in pursuit of perfection that ability is acquired. He accomplishes more who falls while seeking the best, than he who is content from the beginning with the smallest results.

"Not failure, but low aim is crime."

Love is real loveliness.

The old, great love gives the new, great life.

Refinement marks the beautiful character. As we advance in the spiritual life we drop off the grosser habits of the world and find increasing delight in the invisible and eternal. Spiritual perception becomes keener, and all life takes on new meaning. We are not really adjusted to our place in God's universe until the spiritual life becomes predominant.

NEWS AND NOTES.

Gen. Booth attributes his remarkable vigor in old age to the fact that for the past seven years he has been a vegetarian.

An associate and friend of David Livingstone, Dr. James Stewart, founder of the industrial institute, at Lovedale, South Africa, has recently died.

Roberts College, Constantinople, a famous missionary institution, now has an enrollment of 342 young men, representing fifteen races. Half of them, however, are Greek.

It is possible that England's partnership in the opium traffic may soon cease, an end long sought by religious people. The new Liberal Secretary for India, John Morley, as well as the new Under-Secretary in the same office, are both opposed to the traffic.

The question of coolie laborers in South Africa agitates industrial England. Opposition to it is very strong. Bishop Hartzell of the American Methodist Episcopal Church, who has just returned from South Africa, is out in a London interview, favoring the Chinese coolie labor.

Extraordinary tales continue to confirm India and China concerning religious outbursts similar to the revival in Wales. All-night meetings, consecration of hundreds in prayer, and an extraordinary use of Christian song have been features of these demonstrations.

Drew Theological Seminary will have an endowment of half a million dollars if the efforts which Methodist Episcopal preachers are making toward that end are successful. The president of the board of trustees, Samuel W. Bowne, has offered $100,000 of the proposed amount.

"There are five popes on the face of the earth," says London Truth. "They are the Pope of the Latin church; the schismatic, or Orthodox, Pope; the Father of the Faithful, ruling at Constantinople; the Pope of Tibet, who has 500,000,000 of subjects; and the schismatic Pope of the Mohammedan world, who reigns at Morocco."

Among the consequences of the recent election in Great Britain, that will effect the churches, is the likelihood of the disestablishment of the church of England in Wales. The majority of the people are Dissenters and the subject has long been agitated. The Welsh are also rejoicing that with the advent of Augustine Birrell to direct the new Board of Education, there will be no attempt to coerce the county councils into complying with the abhorred Education Act.

A beautiful story has come to light concerning Dr. Chestnut, one of the women missionaries recently murdered at Lien Chou. Just a few minutes before her life was taken, while the mob was threatening her, she bound up the head of a little boy who had been seriously injured in the rioting. Although in imminent peril of her own life, she took time to care for the wound with surgical completeness and painstaking. The missionaries did not learn the story until a week later, when order had been restored and the boy himself told it.

The growth of Bible study and mission study in educational institutions continues to be a marked characteristic of the religious work of the times. Such items as the fact that ninety-five out of 182 students of Juniata College, of Huntingdon, Pa., are studying missions. Or that 120 students in Washington and Jefferson College, Washington, Pa., are in Bible classes, could be multiplied by the hundred.

DENTAL PARLORS

108 N. Spring.

I had five teeth extracted by the People's Dentists without any pain whatever; also had a set of teeth made by them, which fit me perfectly from the first, and I would recommend anybody to go to the People's Dentists for any dental work.
W. B. LUCKENBACH,
714 Edgeware Road.

After being butchered by other dentists, I had a perfect dread of the dental chair. After being operated on by the People's Dentists for crown and bridge work, and having several teeth extracted absolutely without pain, I can recommend them to all wishing expert dental work done absolutely without pain.
A. W. HAYCOCK,
558 Fremont Ave.

I have just had a badly decayed tooth extracted absolutely without pain. I take great pleasure in recommending the People's Dentists to all those in need of dental work.

Yesterday's Forecast and Report.

U. S. WEATHER BURREAU, Los Angeles, March 9.—[Reported by George E. Franklin, Local Forecaster.] At 5 o'clock a.m. the thermometer registered 62 deg.; at 5 p.m., 66 deg.; relative humidity, 5 a.m., 30 per cent.; 5 p.m., 46 per cent. Wind, 5 a.m., northeast, velocity 4 miles; 5 p.m., west, velocity 11 miles. Maximum temperature, 70 deg.; minimum, 50 deg. Barometer reduced to sea level.

Weather Conditions.—The area of high barometer which has overlaid the country north of the Tehachepi from the Pacific Coast to the plateau regions during the past several days is slowly moving eastward, followed by cooler weather on the California coast and fog in the northern portion. The conditions remain favorable for continued fair and cooler weather in this vicinity tonight, and fair Saturday, with some cloudiness. The storm which was off the Georgia coast Thursday morning has moved rapidly up the coast, and is central this morning between Long Island Sound and Massachusetts Bay. Snow is falling at Boston and Buffalo. It has also fallen in the lake region, and rain has fallen from the Ohio Valley to the South Atlantic Coast.

Forecasts.—Local forecast for Los Angeles and vicinity: Fair and cooler tonight; Saturday, fair; light northeast, changing to fresh west, winds.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 9.—Weather conditions and general forecast. The pressure has fallen rapidly over the Pacific Slope, and conditions are becoming less favorable for settled fair weather. For may be expected along the coast Saturday morning, and also in the afternoon.

The temperature has fallen 18 deg. at San Francisco and 10 deg. at Los Angeles during the last twenty-four hours. Forecast:

San Francisco and vicinity: Cloudy, cooler, Saturday, with fog in the morning and at night; brisk west winds.

Nevada: Fair, cooler, Saturday.

Arizona: Showers Saturday and Sunday.

BUSINESS.

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKETS.

The continued warm weather is having its effect on business in wholesale produce circles. Yesterday's volume was noticeably smaller, although dealers showed no inclination to complain.

The situation in eggs was unchanged. Receipts of fresh ranch offerings were only 225 cases yesterday, the fewest number that have arrived in this market for several weeks past. In talking with a local egg jobber yesterday who had just returned from the East, he stated that the outlook throughout all the Western States was cheap prices on butter and eggs, and that more of the above-mentioned products would go into cold storage this year than ever before. In Chicago, the governing market for all the Western States, the price of eggs is now as low as 9@7 cents a dozen. The milder weather here in this part of the State will have a tendency to increase the local receipts, and lower prices may be looked for as soon as the shipments are heavier. Prices will then be forced down and jobbers will be able to buy eggs on a basis whereby they may profit in placing all the surplus stocks in cold storage.

Butter and cheese were as before quoted with quiet and featureless markets.

There was very little doing in fresh fruits yesterday. However, the fruit market ruled for apples and sellers reported a satisfactory trade in progress in upper-quality selections at full quotations. Oranges were precisely as last quoted. Lemons of fancy quality are very scarce and rule firm. Mandarins were also scarce and sell at good prices.

Winter Nellis pears are slow at weak figures.

Potatoes met with a slow jobbing trade yesterday and the general market was of a tame and listless appearance at unaltered prices. River potatoes were in over-supply and ruled decidedly weak at irregular rates, as were the heavy offerings of low-quality Oregon Burbanks. Offerings of onions were heavier; 350 sacks being the total receipt of the day. The miscellaneous kinds of vegetables met with a snappy sale and the market was in good shape for sellers. Peas were scarce and sold as high as 9@6 cents; asparagus, 10@11; turnips, 75.

Barracuda and halibut were plentiful.

The receipts of produce as reported at yesterday's exchange were as follows: Fruit, 5 cases; butter, 17,567 lbs.; cheese, 7,21 lbs.; 9 crates, 2,064 sacks; onions, 319 sacks; beans, 268 sacks; sweet potato s, none.

STATE OF TRADE.

DUN'S WEEKLY REVIEW.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, March 9.—Dun's Review of Trade tomorrow will say that some irregularity is noted in trade reports for the past week, but not more than is reasonable, and mercantile collections are generally prompt. The few minor strikes do not seriously interfere with progress, and thus far the only noticeable effect of the coal controversy is the unusually large demand for this season of the year in all fuel markets, and the disposition of small merchants in the immediate vicinity of the anthracite mines to allow stocks to be nowhere depleted. Prices of commodities rose slightly during February. Dun's Index number was $104.204 on March 1, against $104.011 a month ago, and $101,839 a year ago. Railway earnings continue to make striking comparisons with last year's figures, the increase during February amounting to 24.3 per cent. Foreign commerce at this port for the last week showed an increase in exports of 1928, over the same week last year, while imports decreased $71,695. Failures this week number 221 in the United States, against 244 last year, and 24 in Canada, against 25 a year ago.

Local Citrus Movement.

Shipments of citrus fruits from Southern California for March 8 consisted of 181 cars of oranges and twenty-five of lemons. This gives a total for the season to date of 21,084 cars, of which 1168 cars were lemons. To the same date last season 11,828 cars were shipped, of which 906 cars were lemons.

There was a marked revival of rumors which have lain dormant as active forces in the market during the reactionary period. The so-called merger project was brought forward again into attention. Buying of Colorado Fuel was alleged to be for the purpose of control by United States Steel Corporation. The pool in Reading was said to have resumed operations on the long side of the market, thus removing the depressing influence of that stock's weakness from the general market. There were renewed allusions to the supposed important developments in prospect in the affairs of the Amalgamated Copper and in the copper industry generally. A study of the distribution of the day's largest dealings and of its widest advances will reveal how large a part influences of this character have played in the day's operations. The upward rush of 5 points in Atchison, late yesterday, was a large feature in the revival of speculative confidences, but the backwardness of that stock today under realizings had no restraining effect on the advance elsewhere. Bonds were firm; total sales, par value, $2,725,000. United States 2s and the old 4s advanced ¼ per cent. on call.
